

Action on Building Downtown for County Awaits Change Costs

Employment of an additional deputy county clerk, which was authorized by the board of supervisors Thursday evening, brought forth much opposition from the Democratic side of the house. The opposition being both as to the need and also whether it should be done by the present "lame duck" session of the board or left to the incoming board after January first.

A question was also raised as to why one District Superintendent of Schools receives an additional $350 and that matter is to be investigated. Payment of the $350 at this time, however, was approved over the opposition of Democratic supervisors from the district.

After discussion of whether or not the "lame duck" session should become involved in matters which may concern an incoming board, Supervisor James T. McCordie (D), 9th ward, moved that "all" pending matters be disposed of before the new board takes over.

Asks Time to Get Costs

McCardie's resolution called for action on all pending resolutions which may now be "tabled" and that all matters now in committee be brought forth and presented for action before the end of the new year to "clear the slate" before the next board organizes. That included the matter of a county medical examiner and other "dormant" matters, McCordie said. His resolution was unanimously approved.

Supervisor Jesse McHugh (R), majority leader, reporting for the Special Building Committee which is investigation possibility of use of downtown buildings for county office space, reported. He asked time to ascertain the cost of putting such building into shape for county office use and suggested that it seemed more economical to purchase a downtown building, rather than rent on a temporary basis. He said an investigation of the urban renewal plan, which is proposed for the downtown section, indicated the better policy might be to buy property instead of renting.

McHugh said the committee had made an inspection and wanted time to have estimates made as to alteration costs before recommending and policy. He indicated the Welfare Department might be housed downtown if it were found the property was suitable for county use and the cost of alteration permitted. It was agreed to postpone action until estimates were obtained and a report given in a week or two.

Approved by Republicans

The request for an additional deputy county clerk was approved by the Republican members of the committee but Supervisor Michael W. McNik (D), 6th ward, did not sign the report. He was unable to attend the committee meeting when it met with County Clerk Lawrence D. Craft to discuss the need.

During the discussion it developed that work has increased (Continued on Page 6, Col. 4)

Barking Dog Cited In Rescue of Boy

A family dog may have saved the life of a two-year-old boy late Wednesday morning when he and his brother, 4, fell through ice in a swamp near their home on Cedar Street, West Hurley.

Neighbors heard the dog, described as a large setter-type, barking furiously from the swamp in the rear of the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Herdman of Cedar Street.

One Could Touch Bottom

The two boys, Daniel, 4, and Robert, 2, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Avery, had plunged through thin ice when they ventured too far from shore. Daniel's feet touched bottom and he was able to support himself and keep his head above the icy water. Robert was floating face down.

Mrs. Avery and Mrs. Herdman raced into the swamp, plunging through the ice into the water as they made their way toward the two boys and dragged them out.

Eyes Remain Glazed

They were taken into the Herdman home where they were given hot baths, placed under blankets and given hot chocolate in an effort to warm them up. Daniel appeared to recover but Robert's eyes were glazed and he failed to respond properly to treatment.

Deputy Sheriff Donal Partidge of the Ulster County Sheriff's office felt that the boys should be taken to the hospital for further examination and treatment and the West Hurley Fire Department was called.

The company dispatched its fire ambulance manned by Lewis McNally, Ronald Every, Philip Fogel, Clifford Seaman and Clyde Russell and the two boys were rushed to Kingston Hospital. Daniel was treated and released.

Decision Is Reserved on Ashby Moves

The Appellate Division today reserved decision on a motion to reverse the Edwin W. Ashby second degree perjury conviction, returned last February by a trial jury, and also a motion to dismiss the indictment.

Ashby, former Ulster County commissioner of jurors, was charged with giving false testimony before the special grand jury in the Ulster County kick-back probe.

Says Rights Violated

N. LeVan Haver argued for defendant Ashby that Ashby's constitutional rights had been violated and he had been compelled to testify against himself at the trial. He contended that Ashby had appeared a second time before the grand jury and purged himself of any false testimony given at his first appearance on Oct. 2, 1958. It was an error of the court to allow prosecution to go into details regarding the price the late Frank Buckley charged Ulster County municipalities for equipment sold since this had nothing to do with the Ashby perjury and the prosecution never claimed Ashby retained any of the money from checks cashed for Buckley on trips to Trop. It was further argued that there was no legal proof there was a quorum of the grand jury when Ashby testified.

To Trade Owners H Savings Bonds For E Series Ones

WASHINGTON (AP)—Owners of the popular series E savings bonds will be given a chance to swap them for series H bonds, which pay interest twice a year.

Those who make the switch will be able to postpone paying taxes on the interest they've earned on their E bonds. This interest is collected—and taxed—only when the bond matures or is redeemed. Its exchange for the series H bond would delay the due date of the tax until the new bond matures. The Treasury announced Thursday that, starting next Jan. 1, anyone who owns E bonds may exchange them at any time for H bonds. The offer also is being made to owners of series F and J savings bonds—types no longer sold.

Officials believe hundreds of thousands of people will make the switch. Altogether, between 35 and 40 million Americans own E bonds.

New Label Plan Will Help Ease Cranberry Scare

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new labeling plan helped today to ease the cranberry scare.

The government Thursday assured housewives they didn't have to worry about including cranberries in their Thanksgiving menus — if the berries they buy are labeled as being safe.

Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming told berry shoppers to look for one of these labels: 1. "Examined and passed by the Food and Drug Administration of the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare."

2. "Certified safe under the plan approved by the U. S. government for cranberries." This statement must be signed by the packer distributor who has the testing done in line with government procedures, Flemming said.

Misuse of the labels will be regarded as a crime, the secretary added.

Cranberry industry spokesmen assured housewives there will be plenty of certified berries for the holidays. The cranberry scare developed last week when Flemming told a news conference that traces of a weed killer had been found on some berries grown in the Pacific Northwest. He said the weed killer, Aminotriazole, had produced cancer when fed to laboratory test rats.

Arguments on Ryan's Indictment Are Over

The Court of Appeals Thursday afternoon declined to hear any more arguments on the indictment which charged Morgan D. Ryan with conspiracy to pay bribes to Ulster County town superintendents.

This was the original indictment which charged Ryan and Ernest Steuding, former Kingston City Public Works Superintendent, with conspiracy. That indictment was returned March 10, 1959.

The special grand jury returned a joint indictment naming Ryan and Steuding. Later Steuding entered a plea of guilty and was given a year suspended sentence.

Ryan, through his counsel, N. LeVan Haver, appealed and the indictment was thrown out by the court earlier this year on the grounds Ryan had testified before the grand jury which returned the indictment and that he may have been granted immunity and therefore his testimony could not be used against him.

Conviction Thrown Out

As a result of his testimony before the grand jury, Ryan also was convicted of contempt of court and that conviction was also thrown out by the high court at the same time the indictment was dismissed.

Special Attorney General Tompkins, prosecutor in the Ulster probe, applied to the Court of Appeals about three weeks ago for permission to reargue the matter. That application for re-argument has been denied by the Court of Appeals.

However, there is still pending an indictment against Ryan charging him with bribery. That indictment was returned in August by a "regular" grand jury. This indictment was attacked on the grounds the grand jury was not legally in session. Tuesday of this week the Appellate division held the latest indictment charging bribery under three counts was valid.

To Fix Trial Date

On Monday at 10:30 a. m. Justice Henry Clay Greenberg will hear an application by Special Prosecutor Tompkins to fix a date for proceeding with the bribery trial, and for summoning a trial panel of jurors to hear the case. It will be opposed by counsel for Ryan.

Sees $50 Million in Sales

Local Cement Plant To Increase Output

Colonial Sand & Stone Co., Inc., which operates a cement mill in the Steep Rocks section off North Street, anticipates increases in sales for 1959 to about fifty millions dollars from $42,147,000 last year.

Anthony Pope, president of the company, forecast that earnings will rise "better than 40 per cent or to about $2,000,000, equal to two-dollars a share from $1.4 million, or $1.39 a share in 1958, according to the Wall Street Journal.

Pope said net profit and sales for 1959 would be at record highs, and he said 1960 should be another good year. The company produces concrete, stone and building materials in addition to cement. Colonial operates a large fleet of tugboats, trucks and barges.

To Make 2 Million Barrels

The company is boosting cement capacity at its plant in Kingston, to about two million barrels a year from the current 900,000 barrels, and it plans to start producing cement at the larger capacity next Spring, the company president stated.

The Kingston plant, completed in 1958, marked the first time Colonial produced the key material it had formerly purchased.

Pope was quoted by The Wall Street Journal as saying, "We look forward to further expansion of our cement facilities." He added, "the company will market cement under its brand name for other users."

The governor, former U. S. coordinator of inter-American affairs and assistant secretary of state for Latin America, also praised the legion Thursday night on its hemispheric activities.

He said he has first-hand knowledge of the "priceless value" of the legion's wartime Americanization program in strengthening friendly relations with Latin America.

The governor spoke at a dinner of the New York State Department of the Legion honoring the national commander, Martin B. McKneally, of Newburgh. Rockefeller praised McKneally, a lawyer who was elected commander last August.

Orthopedic Specialist Dies at 58

Dr. Saul Ritchie, 58, prominent Kingston orthopedic surgeon, died suddenly Thursday afternoon in Benedictine Hospital shortly after visiting patients there.

The noted bone specialist had retired for consultation with a group of colleagues when he was suddenly stricken and died an hour or two later.

Funeral services were scheduled for 2 p. m. today at Temple Emanuel of which he was a member. Rabbi Herbert I. Bloom conducted the services, assisted by Cantor Julian Lohr.

Came Here in 1933

Dr. Ritchie came to Kingston in 1933, opening an office on Broadway at Brewster Street.

He was a veteran of World War 2, having served as a lieutenant colonel in the army medical corps. He entered the service August 18, 1942, first serving as assistant chief of the orthopedic section at the Walter Reed General Hospital, Washington, D. C.

In June, 1943, he was assigned as chief of the orthopedic section at the Foster General Hospital in Jackson, Miss. He remained there until his discharge.

Dr. Ritchie then returned to Kingston, opening an office for the practice of orthopedic surgery in December, 1945, at 25 Main Street. He later moved his offices to 82 Fair Street. He resided at 102 Mountain View Avenue.

Dr. Ritchie was a member of Kingston Post 150, American Legion.

Project Is Announced By Wilson To Be Beginning Of 9W Route Job

A project for widening Albany Avenue Extension from the city line to the IBM plant has been programmed by the New York State Department of Public Works, according to notice received today by Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson. The cost is estimated at $800,000.

This will be the first step in widening Route 9-W from Kingston to Saugerties.

Heavily Traveled

The first project will be for the 1.8 miles just north of Kingston which is very heavily traveled daily by the thousands of IBM employees. The pavement will be widened to 48 feet and a storm sewer system will be installed throughout the entire length to relieve storm water conditions.

Earlier this month Assemblyman Wilson and Supervisor Alexander Banyo (R) Town of Ulster, visited the State Department and suggested widening the route.

Henry Tenhagen, chief engineer for the Department of Public Works, on receipt of the request for improvement of the route between Kingston and Saugerties, requested District Engineer Kurt G. Rauer of the Poughkeepsie office for his recommendations. The project was recommended by Rauer.

Sewer System Included

Chief Engineer Tenhagen in a letter to Assemblyman Wilson says, "We have accordingly programmed a project for the widening and improvement of this highway between the City of Kingston and the IBM plant. The first project will be 1.8 miles in length and estimated to cost $800,000. The pavement will be 48 feet wide and a storm sewer system will be installed throughout the entire length of this project. We believe that this is the portion of the road that is most in need of improvement."

On October 19, 1959, Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson wrote Chief Engineer Tenhagen in regard to the acute situation, suggesting that completion of the connections with Route 209 might relieve the situation to some extent so far as the City of Kingston is concerned, but expressing concern over the continuing problem presented by IBM traffic.

Suggests Four Lanes

Wilson suggested a four-lane highway from Kingston to Saugerties. He called attention to the increasing number of suburban stores on the route and the problem of control of traffic in (Continued on Page 6, Col. 5)

1,400 Buildings Wrecked, 376 Hurt In Japan Blasts

YOKOHAMA, Japan (AP)—A fire in a chemical plant touched off a series of gigantic explosions in a heavily populated Yokohama suburb today. More than 1,400 buildings were destroyed or damaged, and 376 persons were injured.

There were three confirmed deaths and 23 persons listed as seriously injured.

The death toll would have been huge, but word of the fire spread quickly. Before the explosions began, most of the workers within the plant had raced to cover in caves or behind earth and concrete bunkers built when the plant was a Japanese navy ammunition depot.

"It was worse than a bombing — like a gigantic earthquake," said one witness.

Windows were shattered for a mile around. Debris crashed through the roofs of homes and business houses. Cut and bleeding school children ran screaming from nearby classrooms.

The plant makes explosives for engineering and construction projects and some ammunition. Police ordered persons within a mile and a quarter radius to safer ground, fearing the raging fires would touch off warehouses of TNT and dynamite. But by nightfall, some seven hours after the first blast, the flames were under control and residents were allowed to return to their homes.

U. S. military ambulances and medical teams joined in aiding the injured.

Disabled Farmer May Apply for Social Security

Are you a farmer so disabled you are no longer able to manage or operate your farm? You may be eligible for disability benefits under the Social Security program if you are between 50 and 65 years of age, or to have your earnings record frozen if you are not yet 50.

George J. Johnson, district manager of the Kingston Social Security Office, pointed out that as of October 1959, self employed farmers who are severely disabled may qualify for disability insurance benefits based on earnings solely from the farm. In addition to being severely disabled a person must have five years (20 quarters) of earnings credited to his social security record in the 10-year (40 quarter) period before becoming disabled.

Agricultural self-employed income was first covered by social security in January 1955. Therefore, as of October 1959, a farmer with no earnings other than those from the farm can meet this work requirement if he has had creditable self-employment income for each year beginning with 1955. As there is a six-month waiting period after a person qualifies for disability benefits, anyone who met the requirements in October would get his first check for the month of April 1960.

Business, Industry, Labor Support Diabetes Detection

Business, industry and labor in Ulster County have joined in pledging support to the 1959 Diabetes Detection Drive, the highlight of the current Diabetes Week which has as its immediate objective the detection of undiagnosed cases of diabetes in the county.

Local business and industrial concerns participating are Channel Master, Inc. of Ellenville; Electrol, Inc., Kingston; Ferro-cube Corporation, Saugerties; Hercules Powder Company, Port Jervis; International Business Machines Corporation, Kingston; Montgomery Ward, Inc., Kingston; Rotron Manufacturing, Woodstock, and the New York Telephone Co. International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, International Ladies Garment Workers Union and Carpenters District Council also are lending their support.

As a result, an estimated 10 thousand employees at local business and industrial concerns and labor union locals are scheduled to take the simple test for diabetes. These figures were released today by Dr. Curtis P. Bight, chairman of the Diabetes Detection Drive. He expressed his appreciation to the forward-looking business and industrial firms and labor unions which are cooperating in the drive.

He attributed the success of the effort to a general understanding of the fact that the drive is no cause for concern, and noted that the diabetic who keeps his condition under good medical control is as acceptable as a non-diabetic in practically every type of employment. "There are more than 1,200 positions in the federal government which have been classed by the Medical Division of the United States Civil Service as suitable for diabetics," Dr. Bight asserted. "The only real danger a diabetic needs fear is neglect of his condition."

The Medical Society of the County of Ulster is sponsoring the local drive in cooperation with the national campaign of the American Diabetes Association to detect 1,000,000 unknown diabetics in the country. The effort is entirely educational and is in no way concerned with fund-raising. The simple test kits are available free of charge at every drug store in Ulster County. It is hoped that every citizen will take advantage of this unique opportunity, especially anyone who has one or more diabetics in his family.

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller comes to Providence today to address the New England Society of Newspaper Editors, attend a luncheon with Republican leaders and hold separate news conferences with writers and radio and TV people.

Rockefeller is scheduled to arrive by plane and has consented to be interviewed at the airport. Then he will have a split interview at a hotel, the first session for TV and radio and after that for newspaper and wire service reporters.

Radio and television news directors indicated some displeasure at the separate news conference, a practice Rockefeller says he has followed since taking office as governor last January.

However, two broadcasters said they have no objection to the governor's system.

The three major broadcasting networks already have registered opposition to Rockefeller's practice of separate news conferences for writers and broadcasters.

The luncheon in Rockefeller's honor was planned by the Rhode Island Republican State Committee.

After his talk before the newspaper editors, the governor will return to his home near Tarrytown, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robelle of Winchell Lane, Creek Locks, called on local friends Sunday. The couple recently spent a month in the Detroit area.

Large flocks of wild turkeys have been noted along the tributary streams of the East Branch of the Delaware River above Margaretville. The birds appear to have little fear of man. They are protected by law.

Vera Kimche of Woodstock was a caller in the village Sunday.

Bernard Raymond, Delhi, was in town Thursday. Formerly a resident of Andes, Raymond is educational director at the state college which has about 500 students.

People from Yonkers here Saturday included Florence LaPorte and grandsons, Billy Wagner and Jimmie LaPorte. The family have a 10-acre place at Samsonville.

Think It Through

E. F. HUTTON
TWO JOLLY FARMERS

The first citizen of Coon Rapids, Iowa, farmer Garst, is making "Liberalism" pay off. According to Congressman H. R. Gross, also of Iowa, Mr. Garst received 55,000 $'s in Federal subsidies in the last two years.

Mr. Garst visits Mr. Khrushchev in Russia, and Mr. K. visits Mr. G. out where the tall corn grows. Mr. K. also gets government subsidies—a palace in Moscow, another in the country, and another on the Black Sea, the Miami of the Red aristocrats.

When these two got to slapping each other on the back, it was quite folksy. As Mr. K. says, "A person's face is more beautiful than his backside."

Quaint quips like these please Mr. G. immensely. He said to Mr. K., "We two farmers could settle the problems of the world faster than the diplomats." But this isn't saying much.

The two wives had a grand time together. "We had the coziest visit, with my granddaughter sitting on her lap."

The Khrushchevs gave the Garsts a tea set made of gold, twenty phonograph records of Russian folk songs, six jars of caviar, five bottles of perfume, and ten bottles of liquor in a mahogany chest.

All our government gives the Garsts are measly subsidies of only 55,000 $'s.

Hon. Adlai Stevenson said to K., "When you retire, come and live on my farm in Illinois."

And fetch a tea set made of gold!

The wage formula is proportioned to cash dividends paid on the company's common stock. This year's dividend is payable March 15, 1960.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. (AP) —About 220 production and maintenance workers ended their 11-week-old strike at the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. plant here Thursday night when they approved a two-year contract.

Terms of the new package included a 10-cent-an-hour general wage increase with a reopener at the end of the first year a union spokesman said. Previous wage scales were not disclosed.

The workers, members of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers International Union, left their jobs Sept. 3 when contract talks broke down.

Ralph Roling, representative of the Missouri Farmers Assn., examines sprouted corn in the Missouri River bottom. This field was harvested early with a picker-sheller and the stalks shredded. Yet the field is green with young stalks that have sprouted from corn missed by the picker.

TAPPAN, N. Y. (AP)—The federal government has sold the last of its holdings in what was known as Camp Shanks, the World War II embarkation center in Rockland County.

Up for sale at public auction Thursday were 12 acres of land and seven houses, divided into eight parcels. One parcel was land only. The land and houses brought a total of $129,000.

The highest bid for a single parcel of land with a house was $21,500.

Four of the land-house parcels were bought by present tenants. All of the remainder of what once was a sprawling Army camp had been sold previously to real estate developers. About 2,000 homes already have been constructed on the camp site.

After Camp Shanks was closed, the government started renting and selling houses and barracks. The auction returned the last of the camp area to private ownership.

PANDORA'S BOX

Sometimes it seems a shame to keep hammering humanity with its load of problems. If this keeps up, the rockets to the moon will be jammed.

Everybody knows that the hurtling growth of population will bring the world tremendous difficulties. The new millions—billions one day—will need space, housing, food and the other necessities. They'll need jobs as well.

Just their being here in such great numbers will create countless social frictions. Crimes of property and violence will mount staggeringly. The competition among nations, among economic and political systems, will be intense.

As if all this were not enough, now comes a scientist who voices fear that humanity may one day destroy itself through its own pollutants—chemical, radiological, and other.

The dangers already are present. A good deal of evidence suggests that people who breathe automobile fumes and similar city contaminants are more likely than others to develop lung cancer.

No one needs to be reminded of the great fears surrounding nuclear fallout.

Industrial wastes pollute our streams, our lakes and ocean shores and add to the air pollution over cities. Alarm is rising over the spreading use of insecticides and weed killers that could harm the food supply. The cranberry scare is an example.

As America's and the world's numbers grow at great speed, the pollutants discharged into the air and water are likely to mount in at least equal volume. The man-made perils to health could reach a frightening level.

There is painful irony in this prospect. Man has striven for centuries to unlock the chemical and physical mysteries of the earth, to find constantly new and fuller ways to enrich his life.

Many of these secrets he has found, to his great regard. Yet in the process of unlocking them, he seems at the same time to have opened a Pandora's box filled with unseen but very real dangers.

If he does not learn somehow to control these unwanted by-products, to rid himself of gradually engulfing pollutants, then the quest which enriches him may prove to be the daring venture that destroys him.

"Professional listeners" are available for people wanting to tell their troubles. But the trouble may be, what can the listeners do about it?

THE IRRESPONSIBLE

The causes of traffic accidents are many. Drunkenness, certainly; poor judgment, carelessness, frustration, belligerency. The list is a long one.

Consider two causes which, though rarely mentioned, are of considerable significance. One is that seemingly innocuous but potentially lethal thing, plain, old-fashioned impoliteness. Its blood brother is irresponsibility.

Both impoliteness and irresponsibility involve a disregard for the rights and problems of others on the road. Whether this disregard is casual or deliberate, it can result in injury and death.

No one supposes that much good can be done by exhorting the public: Don't be irresponsible; don't be impolite. Some good would be accomplished, though, if everyone were to examine his own driving practices from this angle.

A man who is the soul of politeness in other circumstances may push ahead impolitely when he is behind the wheel. A responsible citizen may, preoccupied with his own concerns, drive irresponsibly. It is for each of us to take a critical look at how he drives. Doing that may avert tragedy.

Dagwood Bumstead contributes to juvenile delinquency because he's not only a fool but a father, says an Australian judge. Too bad all the fools aren't confined to the comic strips.

'These Days'

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY
THE STUPIDITY OF IT

Dr. Charles L. Critchfield, a scientist of extraordinary ability, has been forced to decline the appointment to be head of the Advanced Research Projects Agency by a silly "conflict of interest" rule which continues to deprive the United States of its best brains in the public service. Who does Congressman Chet Holifield of California expect to hold such a position—a Bowery bum who never accomplished anything?

Apparently the objection to Dr. Critchfield is that he gets a salary of $40,000 a year from Convair, with numerous fringe benefits. He is Convair's Director of Scientific Research. Convair would have loaned Dr. Critchfield to the Pentagon, while he would retain his compensation status and his retirement rights.

What the government needs—what the American people need—is Critchfield's knowledge, experience, and intuitiveness. For this no salary can be too great. But Congressman Chet Holifield is not concerned about brains; his concern is that if this scientist is employed by the Pentagon in one of the top scientific positions in the country, Convair should receive no government contracts. So Critchfield stays with Convair and the Pentagon can go searching for another scientist, not a technician, of whom there are thousands, but for a brilliant, constructive, original mind.

Let's look at the record:
Dr. Critchfield's experience has been enormous in his field. Graduating from George Washington University, he taught at the University of Rochester; he was a National Research fellow at Princeton; an instructor at Harvard where he was also a physicist at Los Alamos when the atom bomb was being conceived and made. He was physicist for the Monsanto Chemical Company at Oak Ridge; he then became Director of Scientific Research at the Convair Division of the General Dynamics Corporation. He is the author of "Theory of Atomic Nucleus and Nuclear Energy Sources," in association with G. Gamow.

Let us, for contrast, look at the biography of Chet Holifield who opposes the Critchfield appointment unless the scientist leaves his "conflict of interest." I shall put it in quotation marks as it appears in "Who's Who" (except for abbreviations):

"Began as retailer, 1920; secretary, Cancer Co., Inc., since 1936; chairman, Los Angeles County Democratic Central Committee, 51st District, 1934-38; chairman, California State Central Committee, 12th Congressional District, 1938-40; delegate to Democratic National Convention, 1940; member 78th to 86th Congresses, 19th California District. Member President's Special Evaluation Commission on Atomic Bomb Tests at Bikini Atoll; member Commission on Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government, 1944, 48, 52, 56. Congressional Conference on Peaceful Uses of Atomic Energy, Geneva, Switzerland, 1955."

More and more men of ability and quality will refuse to accept positions with the government of the United States because they will reject the absurd "conflict of interest" requirements, particularly where there is no realistic conflict of interest. Such a man as Dr. Critchfield is a scientist, not a salesman or a retailer. He does not write contracts. His job as head of the Advanced Research Projects Agency would have been to provide to the government of the United States the best information available in science and the application of such knowledge in the service of the American people.

Such a man does not find it interesting or amusing to appear before Congressman Holifield to answer how much he paid for his automobile and whether he bought it with his money or got it as a gift from the company he works for. He deals with physics not with petty graft. If this country wants to use brains, it needs to respect those who have brains and who are willing to use them at something more worth while than the exercise of political greed and envy.

This question of "conflict of interest" grows more serious. We complain about the stupid men we encounter in public life but we make it increasingly difficult for any men to accept public positions except those who have failed in life and therefore have no "conflict of interest," or the hereditary rich who idle until they have a chance of heart and go in for public life, or those who are supported by labor leaders or racketeers.

We cannot afford the luxury of having the top minds reject government posts because of the irksome impediments to effective service.

Dandruff 'Cures' Are Cause For Several Misconceptions

By HAROLD T. HYMAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Like all other skin areas, the scalp is constantly shedding its outer layers. This process is normal and continuous and usually attracts no particular attention.

When the scalp sheds in somewhat larger than average flakes, the condition has been called dandruff.

When attention is drawn to the flakes of dandruff in the hair or on the collar, the condition becomes a disease not of the scalp but of the mind of the self-conscious person afflicted.

Dandruff itself is NOT a scalp affliction. It is NOT due to infection with any specific bug. It is NOT an indication of bad hygiene.

Indeed, it is often made worse by daily hair washing with medicated soaps.

Despite cunningly contrived sales lures that aim to cajole the consumer into purchase of a "dandruff cure," you can have an awful lot of dandruff without becoming bald.

Here's how to make scaling of the scalp less noticeable:

Wash the hair no more than twice weekly. Use any nationally advertised sudsing detergent as a shampoo in place of soap.

Each day rub in any nationally advertised preparation of non-medicated dimethylsilicone or silicone oil morning and night. Each of these suggested products is readily identified by its descriptive label as required by the Food and Drug Administration. Your druggist can help you get them.

I hate to kill false hope among the bald, but when the hair follicles are completely destroyed by disease, radioactivity or poison, hair tonics have no more effect on your scalp than they would have if you rubbed them on a billiard ball.

When the hair follicles are damaged but capable of recovery, hair will grow whether the tonic is rubbed on the scalp or not.

If there were a true "hair tonic," there would be no bald barbers or skin specialists. Television personalities wouldn't have to wear toupees.

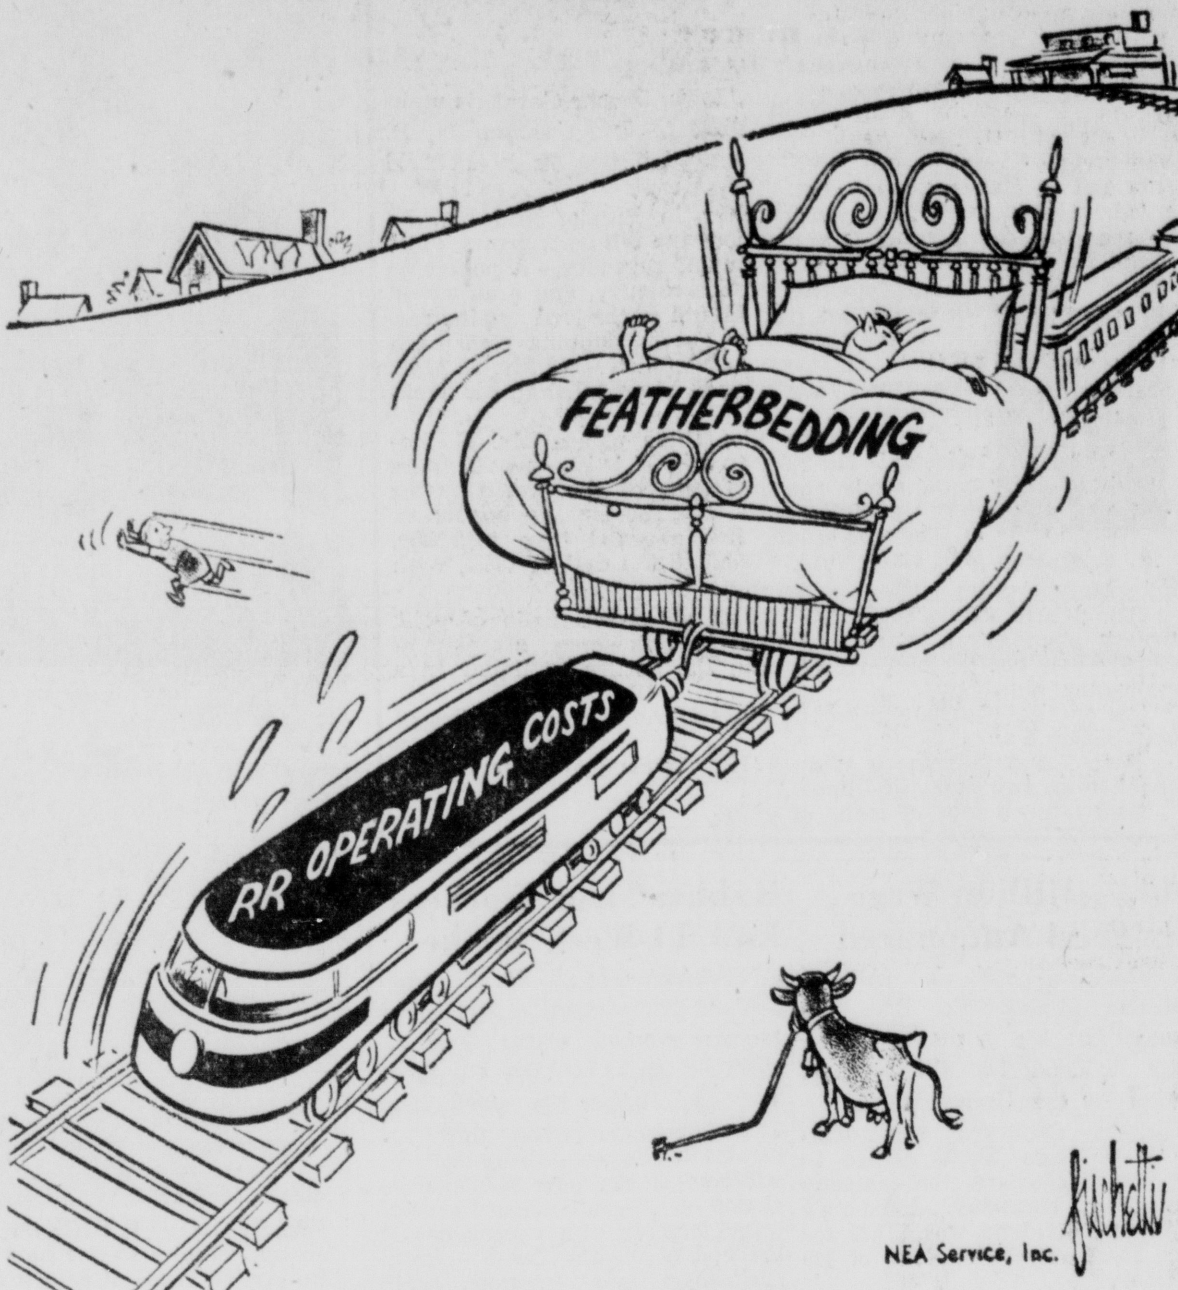

As matters now stand, those with naked scalps might better look before they rub.

Dear Reader:

Do you have a special medical topic you would like Dr. Hyman to discuss? If so, please write the name of the subject on a postal card and send it to me in care of this newspaper. No need to give details. But I would like your name and address so I can acknowledge your request. Your editor will see that your card reaches me.

Washington News

By PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The fifth NATO Parliamentarians Conference, meeting for the first time in Washington Nov. 16-20, is one of the least-known but unique international political bodies.

It was organized in 1953 on the invitation of Canadian and Norwegian parliamentarians. All its previous sessions have been held in Paris, which is NATO headquarters.

The Parliamentarians Conference has no connection whatever with the United Nations. Its concern is primarily the North Atlantic regional community of the United States, Canada and western Europe, plus Greece and Turkey.

The conference sponsored the First Atlantic Congress of 700 leading citizens from the 15 NATO countries, which met in London last June.

It was this congress which made the call for another conference in 1960 to consider means for attaining even greater unity in the Atlantic community of nations.

All these moves are often considered first steps toward eventual creation of a much stronger intergovernmental organization. They might in time lead to a NATO federation.

OPPONENTS OF "WORLD GOVERNMENT" ideas look on all such trends with considerable suspicion. What they fear is a surrender in part or complete loss of national sovereignty.

Today, however, the NATO Parliamentarians Conference is only a semiofficial, international discussion group. It is made up of 150 lawmakers from the legislative bodies of the 15 NATO countries. But they have no lawmaking authority, for their own countries or internationally.

All the Parliamentary Conference can do is pass resolutions which they can refer to their parent legislative bodies and to the NATO Council of foreign, defense and financial ministers who make up NATO's supreme authority.

But the NATO Council, which will next meet in Paris in December, is under no obligation to take any advice which the 150 parliamentarians feel free to give.

REP. WAYNE L. HAYS (D-Ohio) who was president of the conference three years ago and Senate Foreign Relations Committee Chairman J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) head the American congressional delegation of 18 this year.

Among the other noted parliamentarians here are Prince Otto von Bismark, grandson of Germany's famous Iron Chancellor; the Earl Jellicoe, son of Britain's World War I admiral; the Baroness Elliott of Harwood, one of the first women to serve in the British House of Lords; Mme. Gergette Ciselet of the Belgian Senate and UN delegation; Robert Abdessalam, member of the French Assembly from Algiers and former French national tennis champion.

SUPPORTERS OF the Parliamentary Conference look on its work as a check against overemphasis of military power in the NATO organization.

Lawmakers of the 15 NATO countries, being elected representatives of the people, feel that they have a responsibility to protect and promote the interests of the common citizens.

This makes the Parliamentary Conference a kind of watchdog over NATO affairs. As such it can keep the legislative bodies better informed on North Atlantic regional issues which come before them for decision and on financial support by their respective governments.

The interesting thing to watch, however, will be how much authority this Parliamentary Conference will have at the end of NATO's second 10 years.

As the North Atlantic Treaty organization grows in importance as an economic as well as a military entity, it is only natural that it will become a more unified international political body.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Among many books about reporters who covered the first and second wars I note a neglect of the glorious achievements of Karl H. von Wiegand as an interviewer of unapproachables, mostly for the United Press. His master stroke was an interview with the late Pope Benedict published on Easter Monday, 1915, the only interview that a Pope ever has granted a secular journalist for quotation and publication. By that time, however, Karl had quit the U.P. for the New York World.

Mr. von Wiegand now lives in Cairo where his mail address is "Villa Akhnaton, Post Office Pyramids." His vision is impaired, but he travels restlessly.

Karl suffered from prejudice because he maintained his opinions based on knowledge of the trend of world affairs and on the nature of the Soviet state. The pressure of emotion was very painful in our country, especially during the Roosevelt-Truman reign. Once he was pointedly asked why he did not drop the "von" from his name and replied that that would be an act of cowardice. So, in his 80s he is still Karl H. von Wiegand. Henry L. Mencken suffered similarly. He was censured out of print in both wars and just subsided although he was by common consent a writer without a rival in the journalism of the English language.

von Wiegand not only interviewed Grand Admiral Alfred von Tirpitz, but in that interview presented to a startled world the shocking threat of unrestricted submarine warfare against American shipping bound for Great Britain in retaliation.

There was "tremendous pressure," as von Wiegand recently expressed it, to induce the Vatican to repudiate the interview. However, Karl says, "I sent a telegram (to the Cardinal Secretary of State) that I had the original statements of the Pope with the Holy Father's own corrections on it, given me by him as a souvenir. I received assurances that my interview was not being repudiated, nor its accuracy questioned. The Pope's private secretary-chamberlain, who acted as interpreter, was banned from the Vatican presumably to lay the storm."

von Wiegand's earlier great news interviews all had gone to the United Press, but this one with the Pope came after he had left the U.P. to go to the World in the fall of 1915. As Roy Howard recalls it, the World placed the interview under a one-column head below the fold on page one, but Karl insists that the head was five columns wide in the center of page one above the fold. He also relates that he got a bonus of $1,000 in January, 1917. Karl went to the Hearst organization of which he is still an adornment, a real elder statesman of the profession.

The von Wiegand interviews were news. They were shocking

Q—Why is the secretary bird so called?
A—Its name comes from the tufts of narrow feathers standing out from the sides and back of its head. They make the bird look like an old-time clerk, with quill pens behind his ears.

In the Bible, where do you find the Beattitudes?
A—in the Sermon on the Mount.

Q—in mythology by whom were dragons' teeth sown?
A—Cadmus.

Q—Is the sugar maple tree valuable other than as a source of maple syrup?
A—Yes, the wood is excellent for furniture, cabinet work, and wood turning.

College Fight on Loan Oath Held Blow to Loyalty Drive

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—Leading universities and colleges have every legal right to refuse to participate in a government-loan program, requiring student beneficiaries to sign "loyalty" affidavits, but it may be questioned whether the executives of these educational institutions realize the extent to which they are striking a blow against their own government's efforts to thwart Communist espionage and subversion inside the United States.

When the Congress set up the program for loans to college students, it included the requirement that any student getting a loan, in addition to taking the oath of allegiance, shall file with the United States Commissioner of Education an affidavit declaring that the student "does not believe in, and is not a member of and does not support any organization that believes in or teaches, the overthrow of the United States government by force or violence or by any illegal or unconstitutional methods."

'Affront to Students'
The college presidents who are objecting feel generally, as one of their numbers said in a public statement, that the affidavit requirement is an "affront" to students. It is further argued that it would "present no barrier to those it is designed to catch," as such persons would lie anyhow.

But that's precisely the reason for the "oath" itself. It is difficult to prosecute a Communist of Communist stooge in this country today because of technicalities raised in various court decisions, and about the only way to ferret them out sometimes is by means of perjury indictments. Thus Alger Hiss operated for a considerable time in behalf of the Communists while he was working in the Department of State, but he wasn't caught till years afterward when he lied in testimony before a Congressional committee and went to jail on a perjury conviction.

Run Work on Campuses

It is unfortunate, therefore, that the college presidents who have decided to deprive needy students of government loans, rather than let them sign a "loyalty" oath, are not willing to co-operate with Congress in the difficult problem of breaking down the Communist apparatus. It is well known that the Communists operate on the campuses of many colleges. They do so in Latin America and in Europe and Asia. Many of the propaganda efforts of the Communists are dependent on student demonstrations timed carefully to exploit certain controversial issues.

To select one group and not others for the "loyalty" oath requirement is, of course, discrimination, and Congress has to repeal all restrictions placed on the extension of government grants or privileges, or be in the position of favoring one class of beneficiaries of government money as against another. What is needed is an extension, rather than an abridgement, of the "loyalty" oath program.

elimination, and Congress has been slow to make it a general requirement covering all government benefits or privileges. Nevertheless, today every person who works for the Federal government whether appointed or elected, must take the "loyalty" oath. This includes hundreds of thousands of people. Just why the colleges should feel so disturbed over requiring students to do something every official or clerk in the government must do is a little hard to understand.

Government's Right

The Federal government, of course, has every constitutional right to impose a "loyalty" oath or any other condition as a basis for granting a contract or a privilege. Today newspapers cannot get second-class-mail privileges without submitting to certain conditions laid down by the government. The same is true of radio and television stations in getting licenses. If a "loyalty" oath were prescribed for all such licensees, the government would have every constitutional right to make that a requirement.

There is a big campaign on nowadays to get Federal aid to education all along the line. But one thing seems certain—those who want such benefits will have to conform to the conditions laid down by the Federal government. It is strange that when other requirements that interfere with "freedom of association" are imposed by the Federal government—as, for instance, in connection with employment practices—there is not much protest from the heads of colleges or from the inveterate champions of "freedom of association."

Control of Contracts

Thus, it isn't even a law of Congress but an executive order under which companies that have government contracts may have them revoked if the President's committee on government contracts finds that discrimination is practiced in hiring because of race, creed or color.

In the case of labor unions, Congress has gone even further and imposed criminal penalties to meet the Communist menace. The labor-reform bill adopted at the last session prohibits any person who has been a member of the Communist party in the previous five years, from being on the staff, in any except a clerical capacity, of a labor union or of an association of employers dealing with any labor organization.

Congress either has to repeal all restrictions placed on the extension of government grants or privileges, or be in the position of favoring one class of beneficiaries of government money as against another. What is needed is an extension, rather than an abridgement, of the "loyalty" oath program.

in their content, audacity and success. He could not get the Kaiser, but he did interview the Crown Prince, at his headquarters in the Argonne in France. He interviewed Count von Zeppelin, whose gas-bags were bombing London, the first aerial bombardments in history. He interviewed the Kaiserin and Crown princess Cecilia. Finally Field Marshal Paul von Hindenburg succumbed on Dec. 4, 1915, at Posen, Silesia.

Roy Howard hired Karl off the copy desk of the Associated Press in San Francisco in 1912 to send him to Berlin because he spoke German. Earlier Karl had been a Morse telegrapher. Howard recently related that Karl badgered him for gold because war was coming. Roy thought he had better information and sent no gold. In the end, Roy said, he went over with $25,000 gold for Karl to which von Wiegand detests that "I never saw a dollar of it."

But such a trifle may be a mere question of memory and there is affection and respect in Roy's salute to Karl as "one of the greatest reporters in all journalism."

Karl on his part says "I have always looked on Roy as a warm friend."

It is due Karl to note that these all were "first" interviews—of subjects never before quoted in print, all obtained before the invention of the propaganda press conference and the hand-out and only by superb audacity, diplomacy and, in a general term, ability.

Do You Remember by Sophie Miller

Death notices are often very important, as they give the coverage of a person's life when historical facts are fresh in those who knew him. I found the following in the Kingston Argus newspaper of Wednesday, March 27, 1895, which reads in part:

"John P. Hageman died at his residence on Pearl Street, on Sunday morning, at 9 o'clock. Mr. Hageman was born on a farm near Poughkeepsie and was one of a large family. Mr. Hageman's wife was a sister of Joseph Davis, a Rondout liveryman.

"When a young man he was employed as a printer in the office of the Kingston Journal, then owned by William H. Romeyn. About a half a century ago (about 1845) he became editor and proprietor of the Rondout Courier which he conducted about 25 years, when he sold the paper to W. H. & J. C. Romeyn, who afterward sold it to Horatio Fowles. While editor of the Courier he was prominent in the affairs of Rondout village and for 23 years was a trustee of the Wurts Street Baptist Church. After selling the Courier, Mr. Hageman bought the farm situated on the extension of Pearl Street, beyond Burgevin's conservatories, where he resided until his death. For a number of years he conducted a job printing business in Rondout."

No doubt, Mr. Hageman knew John Vanderlyn, the famous Kingston artist, and many other prominent men of the day.

Here are some small items from the same paper:

"Charles McBride and Charles Schepmoes have rented the double house of Peter Osterhoudt on Downs Street."

Other items:

"Julius Schoonmaker, keeper of the Old Senate House, has partially furnished the room over the old kitchen for use as an office.... Since the trouble between the Water Company and G. L. McEntee, people residing on Chestnut Street have been favored with an abundance of water.... George Coykendall is having the old Wolf-er property on Chestnut Street put in fine order by grading, etc., and intends to erect a handsome residence thereon.... What is known as the Eagle baseball club, composed of students of the Kingston Academy, has again been organized, with Girard Mulford, as captain and pitcher.... Harry Hudler is building a large fine dwelling on Elmendorf Street near the railroad bridge. Peter Measter does the carpenter work and Vogle and Doyle the mason work.... W. H. Brigham will move in the residence at present occupied by John E. Kraft. The latter gentleman will move to the Hermance residence on the corner of Maiden Lane and Fair Street."

Sometimes these items give the present owner a clue as to when their home or building was built and by whom.

Another item:

"An old mark, the sign in front of Edward Green's shoe shop on Wall Street, has been taken down. The sign had the name of Mr. Green on one side and a boot and shoe on the other, and was placed there nearly a half a century ago." These old signs are now collector's items, and in some sections where they have historical villages they are using them again.

There interesting old newspapers were given to me by Attorney Peter Harp of New Paltz some time ago. The Kingston Argus was published weekly by Henry G. Crouch, editor and proprietor, in the Argus Building, 279 Wall Street.

UN Approves Soviet Plan About Arms

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. General Assembly today gave its unanimous approval to a U.S.-Soviet plan to refer all disarmament proposals to the forthcoming East-West meeting in Geneva.

The plan, worked out by the two big powers, had been sponsored in the Assembly's political committee by all 82 members of the United Nations. Proposals sent to the new 10-nation disarmament committee included Premier Khrushchev's plan for total disarmament as well as Western proposals. The committee meets early next year.

To Work Out Details

A key paragraph of the approved U.S.-Soviet proposal expressed hope that "measures leading towards the goal of general and complete disarmament under effective international control will be worked out in detail and agreed upon in the shortest possible time."

Today's action came as the 1959 Assembly neared the end of its annual debate on disarmament and related items, such as the proposed ban on nuclear test explosions.

The most controversial resolution awaiting action was an Asian-African proposal calling on France to cancel its scheduled atomic test in the Sahara Desert.

The assembly's political committee, which included all 82 U.N. members, approved the resolution last week. But the 46-26 vote (with 10 abstentions) fell short of the two-thirds majority required for assembly approval. At the time, there was speculation that the vote would fall similarly short in the assembly and France would eke out a technical victory.

Favor Separate Appeal

But Thursday night the political committee, by a 60-1 vote, approved a separate appeal to all nations to refrain from nuclear weapon tests, without mentioning the Sahara project. France cast the lone negative vote. The United States and Britain were among 17 nations abstaining.

France has made clear she intends to go ahead with the desert tests within a few months — with or without the approval of the General Assembly.

The Asian-African bloc charged the French project would turn the Sahara into a no man's land and endanger thousands of lives. France has assured every precaution will be taken to safeguard the area around the test site and compared them to similar U.S. tests in New Mexico.

100 Scooter Deaths

CHICAGO (AP)—More than 100 persons were killed and more than 4,000 others injured in motor scooter accidents in 1958, the National Safety Council said today.

Albany Bids Listed For 2 Area Projects

Bids for Highland and New Paltz projects were among those received in Albany Wednesday for work in several counties by the State Department of Public Works.

Lombardi Construction, of Highland, bid low at $43,245.50 for building a main entrance road at the Highland Training School for Boys, and G-Electric, of Patchogue, at $26,450 for electric service connections in a dormitory, State University of New York College of Education, New Paltz.

J. Burch McMorran, public works superintendent, said 221 bids were received on the 20 projects, which the state estimated to cost $2,151,609.50.

was cross examined as to whether he had claimed the Fifth Amendment at a prior hearing. This question was invalid and unfair and had no relation to the Ashby case, Haver argued.

The defendant Ashby was a prospective defendant and should not have been called the defendant argued.

Special Attorney General Bernard Tompkins maintains that Ashby was never considered a defendant and that his appearance before the grand jury was justified. The prosecution has maintained that Ashby did not tell the whole truth at either of his appearances before the grand jury on Oct. 2 or Oct. 27 when he appeared a second time and sought to purge himself of any false statements previously made.

Says Question Never Raised

The prosecution argued that the question of Ashby becoming a defendant was never raised at the trial.

Ashby was convicted of perjury second degree on two counts by a trial jury last February for giving false testimony before the special grand jury. He was sentenced to six months in the county jail on each count, sentences to run concurrently.

"But," the company said, "there is nothing inflexible about this policy."

More than 60 per cent of Colonial's outstanding stock is held directly or indirectly by members of the Pope family. The company has paid dividends of seven and one-half cents quarterly and five per cent in stock annually for several years.

Pope noted that cement and stone production carried higher profit margins than many of the traditional activities of Colonial and was one reason for his anticipation of improved earnings.

Police Say Local Teen Girls Admit Saugerties Thefts

Two Kingston teenage girls said to have operated locally and in Poughkeepsie before meeting with police action at Saugerties were charged with a shoplifting tour there Thursday.

They admitted, police said, the theft of goods valued at $138.40 from six Saugerties stores.

Placed on Probation

Arraigned before Police Justice G. Thomas Rea Jr., they were dealt with as youthful offenders and placed on probation for three years. One is 17 and the other 18 years old.

Investigation by Sgt. H. Mills and Officer Gordon Keely followed a call from Ben Fein of Fein's Liquor Store, 229 Main Street, Saugerties, who said he believed that two girls, who had been in his store, had left with a bottle of liquor.

Sgt. Mills contacted Officer Keely by radio and the two were picked up on lower Partition Street. One had a bottle of liquor and other merchandise was found in their possession, the officers said.

Local Check Under Way

Kingston police said they gained an admission that the two had other stolen items here, and an investigation is still under way by detectives Leonard Ellsworth and Albert Hutton.

One recent report here indicating that the two might have been involved, came a few days ago from Jack Feys of Feys' Liquor Store, 240 Clinton Avenue, who said that a pint of Scotch whiskey had been taken by one of two girls, who asked questions at the store about other liquors.

They left, one at a time, he said, as he gave his attention to another customer.

The possibility of others being involved was also indicated today.

Saugerties police charge the two with having taken two radios and an ear phone from Frank's Television & Appliance, valued at $104, two pair of slacks valued at $17 from London's Department Store, a $3 clock from Clum's Store, four pair of earrings, $2 from Delson's, a dress and sweater, $7, from the J. J. Newberry Co., and the bottle of liquor, $5.40 from Fein's store.

substantially in the office. Deputy County Clerk Ward B. Tongue has been named Commissioner of Jurors at an additional salary of $1,200 to replace the full time commissioner of jurors who received a $5,000 salary. It was pointed out that this $2,800 saved on the commissioner's salary would go a long way toward the salary of an additional clerk.

It was pointed out that in addition to the regular terms of court, the Tompkins investigation and its attending court proceedings, takes a considerable part of the court clerk's time. Work in the office is increasing in other fields.

Sees No Pressure

Opposition was expressed on the grounds the work had been carried on for the past couple of years and Supervisor Mabie (D) Esopus, pointed out that the Tompkins investigation had been getting along with the present county clerk's force and that the investigation now appeared to be "not at a standstill but not making a great deal of progress" and was not providing any great degree of pressure on the county clerk. Opposition was also expressed over the fact that the request for an additional clerk was made some two years ago and not acted upon until the closing session of the present board.

Opposition was also made on the grounds the resolution did not comply with a recent resolution by Supervisor Richard Leary (D) New Paltz, that resolutions calling for an appropriation should be accompanied by an estimate of the cost.

A motion to table the additional clerk resolution was defeated 16 to 12 with Democratic members opposing.

On the vote for employment of an additional clerk it was adopted 15 to 11 with two supervisors, Lent (R) and McCurdy (D) abstaining. Supervisor Robert Phinney (R), 11th ward, voted against the resolution on the grounds one man could not "hold two jobs." He referred to Deputy County Clerk Tongue who is also Commissioner of Jurors.

Resolutions calling for payment of $700 to the district superintendents of school in the three supervisory districts was approved.

No Record, He Says

When a resolution for an additional $350 for expenses in the Third Supervisory District came up Supervisor George Majestic (D) Gardiner, opposed on the grounds there was no record as to why this additional payment should be made.

It was pointed out there were more central schools in that district, expenses of travel were more.

A motion to table the resolution was made and lost. Only Supervisor Leary (D) abstained. The vote on the proposition and Supervisor Jesse McHugh (R) Gardiner abstained on the grounds he did not know what the additional salary was for. The table resolution was lost 4 to 2 with McHugh abstaining. The original resolution to pay the additional $350 was carried.

Supervisor A. Richard Terwilliger (R), Rochester, moved that prior to submission of a similar resolution next year, the matter be investigated to ascertain the facts. Carried.

Can Proceed With Tax Levy

Town budgets and special district appropriations were submitted and the board authorized the budget officer to proceed with the tax levy.

Whether the county treasurer was authorized to invest surplus moneys in U. S. Treasury Notes was brought up by Supervisor John J. Gaffney (D), Lloyd. It was ascertained that this authority had been given on July 9, by resolution and that he had already purchased such certificates. The resolution also authorized purchase of securities of the state.

Supervisor George Majestic (D) Gardiner, recommended to the Budget Committee that the Ulster County Fire Co-ordinator be made a full time salaried officer. He said this had been recommended by the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association and the Ulster County Chief's Association.

Following McCordie's resolution to clear up all pending business before the 1959 board adjourns, the meeting was adjourned subject to the call of the chair.

Auchmoody at Sill

Army Pvt. Allen G. Auchmoody, 19, son of Mrs. Pauline Auchmoody, Bona Venture Avenue, Wallkill, is receiving eight weeks of advanced individual artillery training at the Artillery and Missile Center, Fort Sill, Okla. He entered the army in August of this year and received basic training at Fort Dix, N. J. Auchmoody is a 1959 graduate of Wallkill Central High School.

Boy's Hand Injured

Edwin Kinard, 12, of 51 Sycamore Street, suffered lacerations over the eyes and an injured left hand, when he fell against a car while running on Hasbrouck Avenue, last night police said. The car was owned and driven by Thomas Alecca, 167 North Street. The boy was treated at Kingston Hospital.

The quick action obtained by Assemblyman Wilson will bring to the residents, as well as the traveling public, relief from this congested traffic "bottle-neck."

Banyo Pleased

Commenting on the action of the State Department of Public Works, Supervisor Banyo of the Town of Ulster said:

"I am very pleased to hear that the State Department of Public Works has so quickly reacted to the request of Assemblyman Wilson and of myself for the widening of Albany Avenue Extension from the city line to the vicinity of the IBM plant. It was on November 4, the day after election that Mr. Wilson and myself last met with them and here only two and one-half weeks later positive action has resulted. Also I am very happy that this $800,000 project commences the drainage of surface water from the road area since in the past there have been puddling conditions after heavy storms. I wish to thank Mr. Wilson for his interest in the Town of Ulster and using his influence to better our road condition."

To Help Business Area

"I am sure the widening of the road will be an extra impetus in the business development of this area. It will also provide safe and quick travel for many of the thousands of our IBM friends and residents of this area who use this road daily."

Barking Dog . . .

morning that Robert was in "very good" condition. He suffered from exposure and shock. Mrs. Herdman said this morning she heard the dog barking and the boys crying and that her grandmother, Mrs. Edna Palmer, looked through a window and was able to see Robert "go under the water."

She said that Mrs. John J. Frangello, who lives next door, heard the barking and first alerted the neighborhood. Mrs. Frangello immediately notified the Ulster County Sheriff's office.

Could Just See Head

Mrs. Avery plunged into the swamp from one side and Mrs. Herdman from the other trying to reach the two boys. Daniel was standing in the water which was over his waist. Robert was "under the water. We could just see his head."

In her grief, Mrs. Avery cried out, "He's dead. He's dead." Mrs. Herdman tried to comfort her, saying "I saw his eyes open."

Mrs. Herdman said Robert's eyes were open but that he didn't recover quickly.

She said the dog, believed to be a mixed setter, was barking continuously and racing about the edge of the pool trying to get into the water.

The property on which the swamp is located is owned by John Groves. It was reported.

Onteora P-TA Book Fair Due To Open at School Nov. 23

The Onteora P-TA Book Fair will again be held at the Onteora Central School on Monday, Nov. 23, through Nov. 25, it has been announced.

The purpose of the fair is to stimulate interest in reading and to develop an appreciation of literature among youngsters at all different age levels. The fair will be held in the main hall of the school and there will be a large and appealing display of books for the students to browse through. There will be books from everyone—from pre-school through senior high.

Because of the outstanding success of last year's fair, Donald Twine of the Catskill Book and Record Shop has ordered an even greater variety of books this year, including an excellent selection of inexpensive paperback books for the high school student.

The regular books and paperbacks will again be offered at substantial discount. The Book Fair booths will be open during school hours on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday for the students and on Tuesday night (Open House night) from 7:30 p. m. to 10 p. m. for the parents. All the books will be arranged at separate tables according to the various age groupings.

Book Listing

Lists with titles, prices and the approximate age levels of the recommended books will be sent home with all Onteora students the week before the Book Fair. These lists will also be distributed in the Woodstock School and the West Hurley School. Students in these schools may purchase any book on the list at the discount price during the three days of the fair by visiting the Catskill Book and Record Shop and placing their order there. The list of recommended books was selected with the advice of administrators and faculty members.

A poster competition is being organized for the elementary children by Herbert Din, art teacher at Onteora, and prizes of books are being donated by Donald Twine for the finest posters.

The Book Fair committee consists of co-chairmen, Mrs. Peggy Cole and Mrs. George Hucker, assisted by Mrs. Malcolm Rose, Mrs. Manuel Bromberg and Mrs. George St. Pierre.

The P-TA sincerely hopes that all parents will encourage their child to visit and browse at the Book Fair tables and that they will be at Onteora in person on Tuesday evening, Nov. 24, for "Open House" and the Book Fair.

Riding Club Projects Plan Working Toward Class A Show

A long range plan which would eventually place the annual Woodstock Riding Club horse show in the Class A category and last for three days is under consideration by club.

At the last board of directors meeting, plans were discussed to make next June's American Horse Show Association a two-day affair. The directors feel this move would increase the quality as well as the variety of show and help local business, because exhibitors would have to stay overnight.

If the two-day show proved successful, it could eventually lead to a three-day show, in which event the Woodstock show could come under the American Horse Show's A category with its attendant prestige and quality.

It was announced that preliminary to staging a two-day, it will be necessary for the club to install electricity at the Ohayo Mountain ring, a project which is planned for the near future.

The square dance sponsored last Saturday night at the Odd Fellows hall in Bearsville by the club's Junior Committee was a huge success with 35 persons attending. Trophy and ribbon winners of the Junior Riding days were honored at the dance. Music was furnished by Harold Halwick's Hudson Valley Boys.

Bovine Brassiere

TORONTO (AP)—The better a milk cow gets to be, the more she is apt to become burdened. The answer is on display here at the Royal Winter Fair. It's a bovine brassiere, made of sturdy waterproof canvas with webbing adjustable at four points and "coil springs to insure a snug fit." It costs $21.50.

TRIPLET CALVES—Bernard Kittredge, 5, and Erna Polle examine triplet Holstein calves in Weathersfield, Vt. Twins in bovine families are unusual. Triplets are rare. Unfortunately for the calves, multiple birth animals are of little use for milking purposes and they'll be sold for their meat only.

Catholic Shrine Dedication Is Set Today at Capital

WASHINGTON (AP)—A national shrine for the 36 million U.S. Roman Catholics is being dedicated here today with impressive ceremonies.

Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York was scheduled to dedicate the edifice and celebrate a solemn pontifical mass.

More than 200 members of the Catholic hierarchy, including cardinals, archbishops and bishops, are taking part in the dedication ceremonies which will last three days.

Vast and gleaming, the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception is the largest Catholic church in the United States and the seventh largest in the world. St. John the Divine, an Episcopal church in New York City, is the nation's largest church.

With its sheath of pale limestone and its lofty, blue-and-yellow tiled dome, the shrine dominates the northeast section of Washington. It is on the campus of Catholic University, three miles north of the Capitol.

The shrine is a blend of the Byzantine and Romanesque styles. From the ground to the top of its gold-tipped bell tower is 329 feet. The wall behind the altar is 459 feet from the entrance across 50,000 square feet of marble floor. Pews for 3,000 fill little more than half the huge interior, the rest being taken up with the sanctuary and altar.

Discontinuing Edsel Won't Affect Force

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Ford Motor Co.'s decision to discontinue its Edsel line won't affect production workers at a Ford stamping plant in nearby Woodlawn, the company announced Thursday.

A spokesman said Edsel provided "about one to two percent" of the work at the plant, and that no set number of workers were assigned to the Edsel.

The plant, which stamped parts of all four Ford lines, employs about 600.

Raps Farm Program

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP)—Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.), a presidential hopeful, says youth finds no hope on the land under the Republican farm programs which he labeled a "fraud."

He said the present administration's new five-point program "isn't worth five cents to the farmer. It is simply a restatement of the tired old ideas and programs."

Humphrey, searching for presidential nomination support, made his comments in a speech to the Kansas Farmers Union's convention.

Tire Blast Kills Man

BRIDGEWATER, Mass. (AP)—An automobile tire exploded in a garage Thursday, killing Floyd Tufts, 31. Police said he was struck by the tire casing or the rim.

8-State Panel Malformations, Radioactivity Study May Come

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Eight states may participate in a joint study of the relationship between natural radioactivity in rocks and malformations in babies.

Interest in such a study was indicated Thursday by representatives of New York, Colorado, Illinois, Florida, Maryland, Minnesota, Vermont and New Hampshire.

The state's representatives attended a meeting sponsored by the U. S. Public Health Service, Michigan, Maine and Wisconsin also were represented.

Congress has appropriated $50,000 for the study.

Earlier this year, the New York State Health Department said a study it had made indicated "a definite association of congenital malformations of babies born in Upstate New York during 1948-55 and occurrence of increased levels of radioactivity in bed rock."

Dr. Francis J. Weber, chief of the radiological health unit of the U. S. Public Health Service, said the federal agency would help set up standards for any joint study. He suggested that an investigation not assume that radioactive rocks are the sole cause of malformations.

A final decision on the study will be made at subsequent meetings. No dates were set for them.

Counts Dismissed Against Man in Welfare Inquiry

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP)—A judge has dismissed a 66-count larceny indictment against former Welfare Commissioner Leo H. Vosburg.

County Judge Archibald C. Wemple ruled yesterday that Vosburg's constitutional rights were violated when the commissioner was forced to testify against himself before the grand jury that returned the indictment.

Vosburg's indictment stemmed from a state inspection of County Welfare Department records more than a year ago. Vosburg resigned as commissioner the day before he appeared before the grand jury.

He had pleaded innocent to a charge that he appropriated for his own use funds of paying inmates of the county home. The funds were held in joint account with the commissioner.

Coaster Killed by Car

FULTON, N. Y. (AP)—Paul Harris, 15, of Fulton, was killed Thursday night when struck by an automobile while coasting on his sled.

Baffin Land in the Canadian Arctic is named for English explorer William Baffin.

Court Restores Policastro to Old Police Post

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP)—A West New York police sergeant, Peter Policastro, has been restored to the police department on a permanent basis.

He was dismissed when he refused to testify in the trial of police Capt. Chris Gleitsmann, who was convicted of misconduct in office.

Hudson Superior Court Judge Peter P. Artaserse ruled Thursday that West New York acted "without due process of law when it dismissed Policastro last May."

Gleitsmann was accused of traveling to Upstate New York in a police car driven by Policastro to attempt to bribe a New York State trooper to keep a man out of jail.

In handing down his decision, Artaserse said that Policastro should have been given a hearing so that he could explain his position. West New York Attorney Samuel Hirschberg said he'll discuss with town officials whether to bring Policastro before a hearing.

THANKSGIVING

Lord God, we give Thee thanks this day,
Humbly, in our simple way.
For all the gracious gifts which Thou
Hast deigned so richly to endow—
For life—for every passing minute—
For this, Thy world, and all things in it!

We give Thee thanks, dear Lord, for these—
The green beneficence of trees,
The kindness of rain, the birth
Of springtime from a barren earth—
The earth that bears the bread we break
In gratitude for Thy sweet sake.

We thank Thee, Lord, for healing song.
For courage, wise and tall and strong;
For all the laughter and the tears
That mould the pattern of our years;
For truth and trust and constancy,
For faith that lets us lean on Thee!

We give Thee thanks for ears to hear.
For feet to tread Thy pathways here.
For hands to touch, and lips to sing
Thy name in every lovely thing—
For friendship with our fellow men—
But mostly for Thy love.
Amen.

HEY, ICE CUBES... NO GOOD!

Lay off that glass of ice water with and immediately after your meals and you may live longer.

At least, that's the advice of Dan Dale Alexander, author and dietician. He says iced liquids are bad at any time, but particularly with or right after meals because they prevent proper digestion of foods.

He may be right—we don't know. But, now that the hot humid days of last summer are past, we look back with fond remembrance at those lovely tall glasses of iced tea—chock full of tinkling ice cubes, flavored with lemon, sweetened to taste. Each and every one of 'em had a way of hitting dead center! Aw, someone's always taking the joy out of living!

Of course, we want all of you to live a good long time. If you give up ice cubes and go to hot drinks, you'll have to hot the pot somehow. And how would you hot a pot except with electricity or gas? So, here's to you, friends... drink up, cold or hot!

For carefree comfort... heat with gas—clean, automatic, dependable.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

KENTUCKY MINCE PIE

A titillating new taste in mince pie!
2 cups mincemeat
1½ cups thick unsweetened applesauce
½ cup drained crushed pineapple
1 tsp. grated orange rind

Combine all ingredients. Place in a 9" pastry lined pie pan. Top with a twisted lattice top. Bake at 425° for 40 minutes. When hot from oven drop small dabs of butter between lattice openings.

ATTENTION, DO-IT-YOURSELFERS!

Safety hint... don't do it yourself where electrical wiring is concerned! A little knowledge of electricity doesn't make an electrician any more than a course in first-aid makes a doctor. Engage a professional electrical contractor to diagnose your home's electrical ills—to prescribe the cure—and above all, to "operate" on your wiring! Electrical contractors and their employees have spent years learning their craft. It is their business to understand the latest installation techniques. They know every safety requirement of the Electrical Code. Play it safe!

PAGE FIDEL!

Your guess is as good as ours as to how long it took Fidel to grow that brush! But it's no guess when we say that if the Cuban gentleman lived in the Central Hudson Valley he could get approximately 12,000 electric shaves for $1 American! Jeepers! That's 33 years if he clipped 'em once a day! Sounds preposterous but it's the truth, so help us!

DEGREE DAYS—WHAT ARE THEY?

On radio and TV during the heating season you hear a lot about Degree Days. Degree Days are merely a standard for measuring the coldness of the weather. The more Degree Days there are, the colder the weather has been; the fewer Degree Days, the less cold it has been. It works like this—each day you note the low and high outdoor temperatures for the day and average them. For instance, a low of 30 degrees and a high of 42 degrees—total 72—average 36 degrees. Now, 65 degrees is considered the normal basic temperature required to maintain a comfort level inside your home. By subtracting 36 from 65, leaving 29, you have a measure of the artificial heat required to bring your home up to comfort standards for that day. This 29 is known as Degree Days! Total up the Degree Days for an entire heating season and you'll have the dope!

Of course, you won't have to go to all this trouble—the radio and TV fellows will do it for you, probably with round-by-round descriptions as the winter progresses. But, at least, you'll know what they're talking about! Incidentally, total Degree Days, 25-year average, Poughkeepsie area, are 5617—Newburgh a few less; Kingston and Catskill a few more. Last heating season Poughkeepsie area came up with 5972 Degree Days, 8% over the 25-year average!

QUESTION AND ANSWER

"Today's most discussed problem is INFLATION. All kinds of answers are uncovered, but what interests most of us is how it affects us personally. This Question-and-Answer supplies the answer:

"Question: If a man with a family of four earned $57 a week 20 years ago, how much would he have to get today to have the same buying power?"

"Answer: $135 a week... $62 for inflation and $15.40 more in taxes!"

Rene Brandow, 48, of 42 Ravine Street, one of 13 charged with bookmaking in late July, pleaded guilty today before Special City Judge Arthur B. Ewig, and was fined $100.

Sees Democrat Sweep in 1960

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Democratic Leader John W. McCormack of Massachusetts today outlined a heavy and controversial program which he said Congress should consider next year.

He also predicted, in an interview, that the Democrats will sweep the 1960 general election. He reiterated his support of Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts for the Democratic presidential nomination.

McCormack expressed hope Congress will adjourn before the Democratic National Convention in Los Angeles starting July 11. Otherwise, he said, there will have to be a recess until after the Republican convention later in July, with a resumption of the session in August.

As controversial subjects which he said Congress probably will consider during the session starting in January, McCormack listed these:

The usual dozen or more annual appropriation bills; extension and financing of the foreign aid program; an increase in the minimum wage, with extension of coverage; broadening of the civil rights law; a housing bill; increased interest rates on the government's long-term obligations; tax revision; increased benefits and wider coverage under the Social Security program; aid to economically depressed areas; federal help in construction of community facilities; and "an effective Democratic" farm bill.

Bribery Trial Opens

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — The bribery trial of a former mayor and four present or past city councilmen was scheduled to open today in Erie County Court.

A grand jury indicted ex-Mayor Steven Pankow and the other city officials last April on charges of accepting $30,000 in bribes from paving contractors in return for contracts.

Indicted with Pankow, a Democrat, were: Vincent P. Masterson, Democratic majority leader of the council; Stephen B. Moskal, Democratic council member; Russell M. Leech, a former Republican councilman and Joseph P. Cooley, former Democratic councilman and present city clerk.

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — A lion attacked trainer Joel Hartman after a performance of the Ararat Shrine circus Thursday and punctured his windpipe.

Hospital attendants said Hartman was in serious condition. He was bitten on the shoulders and throat.

Hopes Seen Dimmer for Steel Peace

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Hopes for a settlement in the nationwide steel dispute were dimmer today after the United Steelworkers spurned the newest proposal of the basic steel industry.

R. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator, disclosed the new offer Thursday. He said it was a "fair offer to do what can be done and still keep within non-inflationary bounds in the cost of steel production."

Criticizes Proposal

USW President, David J. McDonald, termed the proposal as "something only a company-controlled union would accept." He said the offer was just a rearrangement of "the same old package offered by the industry on Oct. 17."

The new offer was submitted to the union Nov. 15 during secret negotiations between both sides. McDonald said the union's 33-member executive board turned it down the same day.

Had the proposal been accepted, said Cooper, it would have meant a 30-cent-an-hour package over a three year period. He added that the new offer also tempered industry demands for more say over working conditions.

McDonald disagreed, claiming that the proposal would mean a gain of only 24 cents an hour over the three year period.

"The only changes in the work rules issue are a stay of sentence in the same old attempt to deprive steelworkers of hard won gains and protections," McDonald declared.

Almost Same Offer

"The offer is almost the same proposition which the companies had made in October and which was rejected by the full wage policy committee as recently as Nov. 12th," he added.

Industry estimated that the new proposal provided an increase of 6-10 of a cent an hour over the 29.4 cent hourly package offered by the industry on Oct. 17 in another three-year proposal.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP)—Space age issues spurted again, inspiring the stock market to a moderate gain on average early this afternoon. Turnover was fairly lively overall.

The advance of the pivotal stocks was spotty at best and was born by the industrials. Leading stocks were up fractions, mainly, with a few chemicals and selected stocks rising a point or so. Rails and utilities did little.

The electronics - missile - rocket group stole the show with gains running to half a dozen points for Amnec, which is being touted in some quarters as a split candidate.

In addition to favorable Wall Street comment for electronics there was a published prediction that space spending is headed for almost double present outlays in the government's next fiscal year.

Steels were narrowly ahead as cautious optimism prevailed on the prospects of negotiated steel settlement before the Taft-Hartley back-to-work injunction expires.

Oils continued backward. Motors were mixed.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 50 cents to $221.90 with the industrials up $1.30 and both the rails and utilities unchanged.

Corporate bonds were moderately higher.

U.S. government bonds were narrowly mixed.

Track Probe Saved State $10.5 Million

NEW YORK (AP) — The State Investigation Commission claims to have saved the state 10½ million dollars and possibly many more through the commission's probe of the State Harness Racing Commission.

The investigation commission says the money saved "would have been spent through state disbursements for construction work at harness racing tracks."

The claim was made Thursday by Commission Chairman Goodman A. Sarachan as the commission issued a report on the probe hearings it held early this year.

Led to Ouster

The probe led to the Legislature's replacement of George P. Monaghan, the lone harness racing commissioner, by a three-member commission. It also led to the Legislature's elimination of the Capital Construction Improvement Law.

The law provided that certain state revenue from pari-mutuel betting at harness tracks be put aside to finance construction work at the tracks. During the three years that the law was in effect, the investigation commission report said, $43,087,626 was expended or authorized for track improvements.

After the investigation, expenditures of $10,000,000 for a new grandstand and $24,600 for new restaurant equipment at Yonkers Raceway were cancelled. Monaghan had given only oral approval for the projects.

Sarachan cited the cancellations as evidence of how the investigation saved money for the taxpayers.

Would Limit Aid

NEW YORK (AP)—Sir Julian Huxley, British biologist, says United Nations' assistance to underdeveloped countries should be limited to those reducing their rate of population increase.

Sir Julian spoke Thursday before the Planned Parenthood Federation of America, which tendered him its annual Albert Lasker Award.

Lipsticks May Be Next in Line For Drug Battle

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lipsticks may follow cranberries as the subject of the Food and Drug Administration's next battle with industry.

Last month, FDA banned the use in lipsticks of certain coal-tar colors it said had caused death and illness in test rats. The ban, if uncontested, would have gone into effect Jan. 6, 1960.

But lipstick makers, in vigorous protests just filed with FDA, are contending that most lipsticks on the American market would be affected. The 17 shades of red, yellow and orange the FDA cited are key ingredients and have been used for many years without harm, they say.

In fact, the manufacturers say, the ban could ruin much of the lipstick industry, whose retail sales are estimated at some 80 million dollars annually.

The industry contends there has been no substantial proof that humans may be harmed by what they claim is an infinitesimal amount of color that gets into the digestive system from lipstick.

A spokesman said the lipstick makers are just waiting for the cranberry fuss to end before they raise a lipstick furor.

It will include demands for a change in the law which now permits use of only those colors which the FDA has certified as harmless for use in foods, drugs and cosmetics. There are 130 approved dyes, but none suitable for lipsticks, the makers contend. The colors aren't right.

Would Revise Law

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The chairman of State Workmen's Compensation Board and an industry spokesman are calling for revisions in New York's law governing on-the-job accidents.

Solomon E. Senior, who heads the board, said Thursday night changes were needed to keep the law abreast of the times.

Earlier, Thomas H. Fogarty of Binghamton, chairman of the workmen's compensation committee of Associated Industries of New York State, said "leaky faucets" in the program should be plugged without delay.

Risks Pays Off in Duplicate

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service

How would you play your nice comfortable four-heart contract?

At rubber bridge you ruff the opening diamond in dummy and lead the king of hearts. When both opponents follow, you overtake the queen of hearts with your ace, draw trumps and wind up with 12 tricks.

At duplicate you have more of a problem. You note the easy play for six but good dummy players want to go after every trick they can get and you can make a grand slam if you want to take a slight risk.

The risky play is to overtake the king of hearts with your ace and trump a second diamond with the queen. Now you come back to your hand with the ace of spades and go after the rest of the trumps. If the suit breaks three-two you can now make a grand slam. If it does not break three-two you will be held to four odd.

The gambling play is correct at duplicate. A suit will break

Deluge in Miami

Lets Up, More Rain Is Predicted

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Rain which poured 11.13 inches of water on Miami in 30 gusty hours let up today, but maybe not for long. The Weather Bureau predicted further showers.

Thursday, there was a daylong deluge. Numerous streets were flooded bumper deep and some were impassable. Hundreds of cars drowned out. No residents had to be evacuated, although water lapped into many a front door.

Business in downtown section came to a virtual standstill and sightseeing buses were seen hauling tourists who chose to spend the day in dryness and comfort of their hotels.

The heavy rains were confined to southeast Florida. Ocean Ridge, a small community 13 miles south of Palm Beach, had 6.98 inches and Pompano Beach, near Port Lauderdale, four inches in a few hours.

Total rainfall for the year here rose to 85.89 inches—far over the 75.65 inches that fell all year in 1948, the previous wettest year of record.

The record high temperature recorded in the United States is 134 degrees noted in Death Valley, Calif., in 1913.

New Volcano Cone

Forms as Kilauea Spews Molten Lava

By HENRY HARTZENBUSCH

HONOLULU (AP)—A new volcano cone was born today as mighty Kilauea volcano spewed tons of glowing, molten lava and steaming rock 1,000 feet into the air from a week-old fiery vent.

The cone, half-moon in shape, began to rise around a 130-foot fissure in the southern wall of Kilauea Iki crater. It began to take shape after seven days of eruption flowed an estimated 10 million cubic yards of lava down the crater's gentle inner slope in a 100-foot wide river.

At the bottom of the crater, a lake of lava had risen to over 200 feet in depth. And it was rising at a rate of three feet an hour.

Seismologists continued to minimize any threat of an overflow, saying it would take weeks before Kilauea Iki—a mile wide and equally long—would spill over.

An overflow would not threaten surrounding farm land or the few hundred inhabitants of Volcano Village, about a mile north of the erupting crater. The overflow would not move toward the settlement, but into the main Kilauea crater less than a mile west of Kilauea Iki.

Thousands of spectators were warned to remain in their cars while viewing the flaming spectacle on Hawaii's southernmost island. The warning came after the unpredictable volcano burst forth with a tremendous thrust Thursday, sending its fiery fountain 1,150 feet high for a new record in the history of Hawaii's volcanoes.

Seismologist Jerry Eaton said no recorded volcanic fountain in Hawaii had reached such a height.

Budget Troubles Nothing

New for U.S. Presidents

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst WASHINGTON (AP)—In that long ago time—the 1952 campaign—President Eisenhower had visions of balanced budgets. And he always insisted spending be kept down. But budgets got unbalanced and spending went up.

This year, for instance, his budget called for 77 billion dollars, a peacetime record, but spending may hit 79 billion. For the coming year his budget is expected to be around $81 billion, another record.

Could Be Fifth

If this year's budget turns out to be unbalanced—because spending exceeded income—it will make the fifth year in a row that has happened.

But Presidents Roosevelt and Truman had budget troubles, too. Roosevelt had said he would balance the budget but never did in his 12 years in office. Truman also had deficits as well as three surplus years.

History has been against all three Presidents. From this country's beginning—in the first two years of its life, 1789-91, expenses were only four million dollars—the cost of government has been going up, with just occasional backsliding.

That has been particularly true in this century with its three wars, a big depression, and a series of recessions. All were problems the economists couldn't figure in their calculations.

Problems Get Bigger

Besides, the population has been exploding. So as a result government obligations have been increasing in all directions. To put it another way: The government and its problems keep getting bigger.

For example: Eisenhower inherited the Korean War and got it shut off under an armistice, but he had walked into the age of jets and missiles and outer space where the competition with the Soviet Union made heavier expenses certain.

He also ran into the 1958 recession, which he couldn't foresee in 1952 or even in 1957. Last year, thanks to that recession and the drop in revenues, the government deficit hit around 12½ billion dollars.

Small Deficit Likely

This fiscal year ending June 30 will probably show a deficit, too, although it could be very small. Main culprit here was the steel strike and the loss in government revenues which followed.

Still, looking ahead into the 1961 fiscal year starting July 1, with an expected budget of 81 billion or so, the Eisenhower forces are being optimistic all over again. That this one can be balanced.

Although federal spending was only four million between 1789 and 1791, by 1800 it had gone up to 10 million a year, dropped back a bit in 1810, was on the march again by 1820, and by 1860—just before the Civil War, was 63 million.

That war really blew the roof off—for those days. By 1870 spending was up to 309 million, by 1900 it was 521 million, by 1920, thanks to World War I, expenses hit $6,400,000,000.

Down it went again to $3,400,000,000 by 1930. That was the last of the baby budgets. The depression hit, and the government really had to spend. Expenses kept going up and, with the help of World War II, hit a peak of 98 billion in 1945.

Scott Urges Safe Driving on Holiday

Lights for Playgrounds

NEW YORK (AP)—The city will illuminate its playgrounds to help cut juvenile crime, says Mayor Robert F. Wagner. He announced Thursday that bright lights for 20 playgrounds in the worst nighttime trouble spots will be provided at a cost of $80,000. An additional $1,000,000 has been requested in next year's capital budget to light several hundred additional playgrounds.

Paltz Students To Get Letters Of Commendation

Four seniors at New Paltz Central School have been cited for outstanding performances on the National Merit Scholarship test last spring, and each received a formal letter of commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Supervising Principal Frederick C. Dippel today identified the seniors who received the honors as, Judson M. Lyons, Robert D. Stillman, Judy Zimmerman and Douglas Graham. John M. Stalnaker, president of the NMSC said, "We send these letters to provide tangible recognition of superior ability, and it is our earnest hope that the recipients will continue their education, and thus benefit not only themselves but the entire country."

Stalnaker stated the objectives in the merit program are complex. "While the most powerful beams of the spotlight are trained on the merit scholars, we strive to foster the pursuit of excellence among all highly able students in academic work and intellectual fields," said Stalnaker. "We urge the students honored today to make every effort to attend college and develop to the fullest their highly promising potential."

Holy Communion, usually administered the first Sunday in Advent will be administered December 6. Holy Communion is regularly administered at both services the first Sunday of each month.

Pledges not received at the cottage meetings on Nov. 15 may be made Sunday at the 8 and 11 a. m. services. The pledges are for the support of a local budget of $15,000 and $4500 for colleges, seminaries, aid to new churches, foreign missions, social services and the administrative work of the 235 Lutheran Churches of the Synod. The group is planning to be responsible for the folding and mailing of the Tidings, Atonement's monthly journal sent out to all its members.

Among the objectives of the group are: 1. Encouragement of Sunday school and church attendance by youth. 2. Christian vocation. 3. Regular Bible reading. 4. Encouragement of wholesome recreational programs. 5. Assuming responsibility for service projects.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Launer and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Genthner of Elm Street are acting as advisors for the group.

A Thanksgiving Eve service will be held Wednesday, Nov. 25 at 7:30 p. m. The confirmation choir will sing "Bless This House." Anthems will also be offered by the senior and the cherub choir.

A contract has been awarded for the installation of aluminum storm windows and screens for the parsonage, 96 Market Street. The parsonage will also be insulated. The work is done as part of the 100th anniversary objectives and will be made possible for funds given by the members for the anniversary fund. The work will be completed within the next two weeks.

Clothing for Lutheran World Relief and layettes should be at the church before November 30 when the mission circle of United Lutheran Church women will pack the articles for shipment.

Amicitia Circle of the United Lutheran Church Women, meet Thursday. They will bring materials for layettes for the Konarock Lutheran Mountain Clinic and canned goods and groceries for the Finger Home, Saugerties.

Members of the Lutheran Brotherhood of Atonement Church will attend the Hudson Conference District brotherhood meeting Friday at St. John's Lutheran Church, Poughkeepsie. The theme of the meeting will be, "Developing and active and effective brotherhood."

Hoffman Predicts Double Sessions At P-TA Meeting

Double sessions for the Saugerties Central Schools by the year 1961-62 were predicted by Harry Hoffman, chairman of the building committee of the Board of Education, at a meeting of the Saugerties Parent-Teacher Association held Tuesday evening at the Glasco School. Double sessions next year in some grades are a possibility, he declared.

Every available classroom in the district is in use at the present time with an approximate enrollment of 2600 pupils. By 1964 the enrollment is expected to reach 3700 assuming no immigration into the district, an unlikely possibility. At least 28 additional rooms will be needed by that year. By 1971 it is expected that the student population will be about double the present number.

Any temporary measure such as trying to rent space would be very inadequate, even if such space could be found, he said. Trying to rent space, furthermore, would not be the permanent solution to the problem. Hoffman reviewed the alternatives of putting additions on some of the present school buildings versus constructing new buildings. Some rooms might be added to the Mt. Marion School but not a sufficient number. No additions could be made to the other elementary schools in the district due to the age of the buildings, lack of available space around the buildings, or other factors.

The board of education is not advocating any particular plan at this time but an educational consultant to the Board has recommended the construction of a new elementary school, and the construction of a junior high school. Junior high school pupils could be moved out of the present junior-senior high school building in order to relieve the anticipated congestion in the high school. The high school, built for 1,000 now houses 970 pupils. Experts state that a high school building can be used to about 85 per cent of its capacity since it is impossible to have exactly the correct number of pupils registered in each class.

Hoffman averred that there should be a striving for quality in education. He said, "We must solve the quantity problems in order to be able to solve the quality problems."

Since receiving the survey from the educational consultant, the Board of Education has begun to investigate relative building costs. Preliminary plans will be submitted to the State Department of Education. It is expected that there will be a vote on the school bond issue next May or June.

The Saugerties Parent-Teacher Association authorized the president, Herbert Stiles, to appoint a committee to publicize the school building problem so that the public would be fully informed concerning the situation.

Future Teachers Tour Colleges

Five members of the Future Teachers of America organization of Saugerties High School, accompanied by their advisor, Miss A. Frances Larned, visited the State University of New York College of Education and the College of Saint Rose, Albany, Nov. 11.

Those who participated in the trip were Sheila Hughes, Barbara Zichella, Valerie Herb, Roberta Bartlett, and Lynda Wrolsen.

At each college they visited the admissions office, made a tour of the campus, saw the college classroom buildings and visited a dormitory. At the School of Education they had the opportunity of attending a college class. At that college they also listened to a closed-circuit television address given by the director of admissions.

While touring the college campuses, they met some former members of the Future Teachers of America organization. At the School of Education they were greeted by Aileen Gleason, Irene Mower, and Patricia Hogan, and at the College of Saint Rose, by Rosemarie Raucci, Joanne Turco, and Carolyn Roeser.

This is the fifth year of existence at Saugerties High School of the Future Teachers of America. There are 17 former-members of the organization now attending colleges where they are training to become teachers. Future Teachers of America is sponsored by the National Education Association, the New York State Teachers Association, and the Saugerties Teachers Association. Miss Larned, guidance director, helped to establish the branch at Saugerties High School and has acted as its advisor since it was founded.

Librarian Attends Annual Conference

Mrs. Dorothy E. Lowe, librarian of the Saugerties High School, attended the 66th annual conference of the New York Library Association at the Hotel Commodore, New York City, Nov. 11 to 14.

New standards for school library personnel, book collections, and housing were presented by a committee of the American Library Association and endorsed by the School Librarians section of the New York Library Association.

Speakers at the conference included Dr. Robert Fisher Oxnam, president of Pratt Institute; May McNeer and Lund Ward, author and illustrator of children's books; and Walter Lord, author.

Mrs. Lowe joined a tour through the H. W. Wilson Co., publishers of many library indexes and of the printed catalog cards used in the high school library. She also examined the displays of 50 exhibitors and the combined book exhibit of all publishers.

BABSON on BUSINESS

By Roger W. Babson

On the ocean—en route from Russia to the United States, Nov. 20. As I write this, my last report while on my two-months' trip, I think my American readers will be interested chiefly in my idea as to the probability of World War III in our time.

The Dove of Peace

Everywhere in Russia you see replicas of the "Dove of Peace." In restaurants it appears on the frosting of your cake, in stores it is printed on the wrapping paper, and it also appears on postage stamps; while the children in the parks are encouraged to feed the doves that fly about. Every speech emphasizes that Russia is for peace while the United States is anxious for war. Even our guide asked us "why" the United States is so anxious to fight Russia—and why Communism cannot be allowed to help the Russian people without hurting the United States. We are unfairly represented as a very warlike nation.

The Russian newspapers carry stories of how we fought and destroyed the native Indians who once owned so much of our land. They relate how we "stole" Texas, New Mexico, and California from Mexico, which was their rightful owner. The main American news in the Russian newspapers is about our treatment of the Negroes at Little Rock. (I am told that this has let up some since Mr. Khrushchev has returned to Russia. They now talk about the "Spirit of Camp David.")

Destroying Moscow

In case World War III should be started either by Russia or by the United States, which latter I believe could never happen, Moscow and other Russian cities would be destroyed, as well as New York and various other American cities. Whoever might start or even win such a World War III, Moscow would be destroyed whether or not we could destroy the big steel plants and military centers in East Russia and Siberia. I am sure Mr. Khrushchev does not now want Moscow destroyed. It is a wonderful and beautiful city, the "pride and joy of his heart." The foregoing should prevent World War III from coming now. However, this does not mean there may never be a World War III after Mr. "K" dies. When talking with prominent Russians, I insisted that Communism and Free Enterprise could peacefully coexist in the world, as do the Catholics and Protestants who once were constantly fighting each other. The Protestants, when they got into power, cut off the heads of the leading Catholics; while the Catholics burned at the stake the leading Protestants when the Catholics got into power. I know well about this as my own ancestor, the Rev. John Rogers, was the first of these to be executed by the Catholics.

The Russian Answer

The Russian leaders answer this by saying that "intelligent people are now realizing that religious differences are unimportant" and are gradually being eliminated. On the other hand, they claim, the conflict between Communism and Free Enterprise is economic and fundamental. They believe that co-existence of economic differences is impossible and that one system must ultimately be destroyed. They believe that Russia is continually getting stronger through self-sacrifice; while the Free Nations are constantly getting weaker through luxury and easy living.

A Warning to America

In short, I am hoping that the United States, Great Britain, France, and the other Free Nations will have a great spiritual and economic awakening. We cannot go on watching the stock market and following the latest styles of dress and entertainment. We must make our religion real, our politics unselfish, and we must educate our children to sacrifice. It is not enough to say that Communism cannot win as it does not believe in God today. It can believe in God tomorrow, and then what?

In conclusion—we cannot continue leading our present artificial lives and getting softer, while Russia continues to concentrate on fundamentals and grow stronger—for perhaps 20 years or more, but not forever. Hence, we may expect peace for another generation. Furthermore, countries should carefully watch China, which could be a deciding factor as to when the fatal day will come.

HOMEMAKERS GIVE THANKS FOR TODAY'S FOODS

Feast's Ready In a Jet-Age Jiffy

By GAYNOR MADDOX

NEA Food and Markets Editor

The old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinner is still dear to our hearts—in memory.

But the jet age, with its increasing supply of convenience foods, has made the kitchen hubbub that was part and parcel of getting things ready for the big feast in grandma's day, as outdated as the hand-crank ice cream freezer.

Our 1959 Thanksgiving dinner will be just as sumptuous as it was on the family farm. But with this difference: thanks to modern food technology and the pioneering of food manufacturers. The women of the family won't be too exhausted to enjoy the meal.

For a jet-age Thanksgiving with old-fashioned nostalgia, let's visit the frozen foods section and canned food shelves of our streamlined supermarket. For the first course, let's select cans containing eight vegetable juices blended into a zesty appetizer to be served in crystal glasses garnished with lemon slices. Salted crackers go with it.

A large, plump turkey, of course! But use a frozen bird to save trimming, cleaning, singeing and waste—one juicy and tender bird ready for the oven after thawing in the refrigerator. Stuff it with sausage and canned soup, combined with onion and bread cubes.

Vegetables—easy as falling off a log. Use frozen, condensed, cream of potato soup, scalloped together with frozen peas and topped with golden brown bread crumbs. Frozen Brussels sprouts, cauliflower, broccoli and squash are there to add to your jet-age menu and, of course, canned onions, sweet potatoes and cranberry sauce.

Almost every Thanksgiving item from "the good, old days" is there—either canned, frozen or trimmed and packaged fresh, ready-to-use—flavored with nostalgia but minus exhaustion.

The baked goods shelves go Colonial with pumpkin and mince pies as New England as Boston beans. For tender-crust tradition, individual pumpkin and mince pies go to the frozen foods case.

All you have to do with these tempting individual pies is to bake them in the oven briefly. You might want to top them with candy pumpkins and corn, or with ice cream from that same supermarket frozen foods case.

Sausage Stuffing

(About 4 cups stuffing, or enough for a 4- to 5-pound bird. Double the recipe for larger bird.)

One-half pound sausage, 1 small onion, chopped; 1 can (10½ ounces) condensed cream of celery soup, 8 cups bread cubes.

Brown sausage in skillet; stir to break up pieces (if using link sausage, slice before browning). Add onion. Cook until just tender.

Stir soup until smooth. Add to sausage, onion and bread cube mixture.

Note: Stuffing may also be baked in a 1½-quart casserole in a moderate oven (350 degrees Fahrenheit) about 30 minutes, or until stuffing is golden brown. If a moist stuffing is preferred, cover the casserole and bake as above.

Potato-Pea Scallops (6 servings)

Two cans (10½ ounces each) frozen, condensed cream of potato soup, 1 package (10 ounces) frozen peas, ½ cup milk, buttered bread crumbs. Break soup and peas into chunks with a fork.

In an 8-inch square pan, combine peas and milk. Place chunks of cream of potato soup over peas. Top with crumbs. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees Fahrenheit) about 35 minutes.

JET-AGE THANKSGIVING DINNER

Chilled vegetable juice (canned), lemon slices, salted crackers, roast turkey (frozen), sausage-and-canned-soup stuffing; giblet gravy; candied sweet potatoes (canned); scalloped potatoes and peas (frozen); mashed squash (frozen); buttered onions (canned); broccoli with grated cheese (frozen); corn sticks (packaged mix); hot rolls (brown-and-serve); butter or margarine; mixed green salad (trimmed and packaged); French dressing (bottled); individual pumpkin and mince pies (frozen); nut meats (canned); coffee, tea, milk, mints.

Woman Accused Of Murder Says She Feels Free

CANTON, N. Y. (AP)—A woman accused of killing a young golf pro who she claims spurned her love says his death freed her from worry.

She "felt free," 26-year-old Terry DeFrancesco of Rochester testified Thursday at a sanity hearing before Justice Felix Aulisi of State Supreme Court.

"I didn't have to worry about him any more," said the auburn-haired waitress, who is charged with second-degree murder in the shooting of Richard G. Smith, 27, last summer on the St. Lawrence University campus.

Miss DeFrancesco's attorneys, contended she was insane at the time of the killing but now is normal and should be freed.

Dr. Herman B. Snow, director of St. Lawrence State Hospital, told the court Miss DeFrancesco still was insane and recommended she be confined to a maximum security institution.

Snow said she was suffering from schizophrenia, or split personality. He said she was "incapable of understanding the charge against her."

A psychiatrist retained by the defense, Dr. William Libbertson of Rochester, testified that Miss DeFrancesco is sane and capable of aiding in her own defense.

Libbertson said the woman did not know right from wrong when he examined her 10 days after the slaying. She has shown steady improvement since then, he maintained.

Miss DeFrancesco said she was in love with Smith but that he did not return her love.

N. Y. Rackets Law Not Superseded

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—A state law designed to eliminate labor-management racketeering will remain in effect even though Congress has enacted a similar statute.

Martin P. Catherwood, state industrial commissioner, said Thursday the federal law had not superseded the state law that was enacted by the 1959 Legislature. He said the federal statute recognized and preserved state laws along the same line.

The state law requires union officials, employer organizations, employers of 10 or more workers and labor-relations consultants to make annual financial reports on their labor-management dealings.

Catherwood said he would consult with federal officials in an effort to reduce the number of forms unions and employers must fill out under both acts. The New York reports are due by Nov. 30. Under terms of the state law, union officials must make full reports on their handling of union funds. Employers and employer organizations must tell whether they have made any gifts to union leaders.

The law prohibits union officers from holding financial interests that conflict with their union duties, such as interests in companies with which they negotiate.

A MARRIED WOMAN'S NAME

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me how to correctly handle the following situation: We have recently moved to a small town. I have always called myself Mrs. John Brown, and cannot bear to be called Mrs. Jane. As far as I can tell most of the woman here prefix Mrs. to their own first names. My question is, how can I join in community activities and avoid having Mrs. tacked on to my Christian name in club listings. The problem is further complicated by the fact that my husband holds a rather important position in this small town, so I must be very careful not to give the impression of being a snob. Is there a tactful way to cope with this problem?

Answer: Your wish to be known as Mrs. John Brown is definitely correct. But as a newcomer you cannot set yourself up as a critic of an established community custom without endangering your popularity. You can give your own name as Mrs. John Brown but if they do not choose to follow this form in their listings, then I am afraid you will have to submit to Mrs. Jane—at least until you have become an established member of the community, and then explain that you happen to dislike your own name and do like to be called by your husband's.

Nurses' Graduation

Dear Mrs. Post: Recently we attended a nurses' graduation which was held in a well-known church in this city. As the graduates marched into the church the processionary played by the church organist the members of our party stood up along with a few others, while the majority remained seated.

Answer: You were correct in showing courtesy to the graduates by standing.

Inserting Letter in Envelope

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me the correct way to insert a letter, or note, into the envelope? Should the folded edge be inserted first or the open edge?

Answer: The folded edge is inserted first.

Mrs. Post offers readers leaflets on a variety of subjects concerning etiquette. If you would like to have her leaflet, E-15, entitled "Manners in Public," send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail.

College-Community Orchestra Plans Concert November 24

A concert by the College-Community Orchestra of the State University College of Education, New Paltz, Tuesday, Nov. 24, will mark the formal opening of its 13th season under the leadership of O. Lincoln Igou, Professor of Humanities at the college.

The program, to which the public is invited, will take place in the College Auditorium at 8:15 p. m. There is no admission charge.

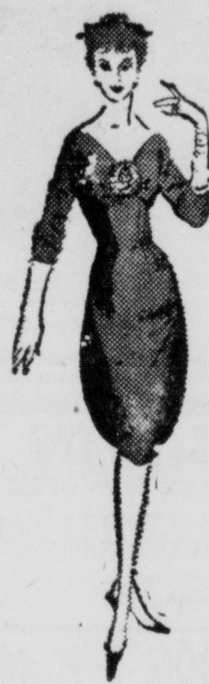

Commenting upon the thirteenth season, Mr. Igou observed: "It seems to have been a lucky token for us, since we have a larger group of more talented musicians from our own 25-mile radius than ever before. This is especially true of the all-important string section. Only in the 'cello and bass sections do we have to look further for reinforcements. In addition, we have also strengthened our bass and woodwind groups to a considerable degree. Most of the additions have been either teacher-musicians living in the mid-Hudson area or talented high school and college students."

Soloists for the concert will be Eric K. Wicks, violinist, and Larry Newland, violist, who will play with the orchestra Mozart's Symphonie Concertante. This concerto-type composition is one of the relatively few to feature the pair, violin and viola, as solo instruments. Mr. Newland is planning for a Town Hall recital next spring, a program dedicated exclusively to the viola.

Other numbers on the New Paltz program will include Rossini's overture, The Italians in Algiers, Wagner's beautiful and sensitive Siegfried Idyll, and the ever-popular Swan Lake Ballet of Tchaikovsky.

Following the program on Tuesday, the orchestra will again take a mid-winter recess until Tuesday, March 1, when rehearsals will resume to prepare for a concert scheduled for May 10. Any area musicians who are interested in joining with the orchestra in its strictly voluntary activities are invited to contact Mr. Igou or any present member of the organization.

New Paltz Players Plan First Major Play; Will Present Goldoni's Famous Farce

The New Paltz Players of the State University College of Education, New Paltz, will present their first major production of the year, Carlo Goldoni's "The Servant of Two Masters," Friday and Saturday, Nov. 20 and 21, in the College Auditorium.

Friday's performance is scheduled for 2:30 in the afternoon, and the performance Saturday will be at 8:30 in the evening. Tickets will be on sale for the remainder of the week in the lobby of the auditorium from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. Tickets will also be available before the performances at the door of the auditorium.

Carlo Goldoni, a native Venetian, who lived from 1707 to 1793, was famous for his comedies, which have often been compared to those of Moliere. He wrote one-hundred and twenty of them in his lifetime, establishing a new Italian character comedy which came to replace the old "commedia dell'arte."

"The Servant of Two Masters" was one of Carlo Goldoni's earliest plays, written in 1743, and is a farce which includes several stock characters and comedy scenes which conform to the "comedy of masks" tradition, so well-known and loved by the Italian audiences of the time.

The basic plot revolves around the age-old "mistaken identity" theme. In this case, a rascally valet finds himself taken as the servant of two different masters at the same time, and, while realizing that the fiction cannot be maintained for very long, takes full advantage of the opportunity, while it lasts, to earn double wages. Truffaldino, the principal character, portrayed by Dennis Sullivan, is the servant who finds himself employed by two masters simultaneously and it is through his machinations that all the ensuing confusions result.

Pantalone, played by Fletcher Johnston, a prosperous Venetian merchant, provides the elements for the farce that develops through his desire to move up in the social scale by marrying his daughter to an upper class suitor. Dr. Lombardi, portrayed by Fred Bedalamenti, is a scholar and the father of Silvio, Clarice's rejected suitor.

The rest of the characters are important in symbolizing the social conditions of the time. Beatrice, played by Frances Morano, is the upperclass lady, who, disguised as a man, pretends to be her dead brother so that she may travel in search of her love, the man who killed him. Her appearance causes Pantalone to break off the engagement between Clarice and Silvio, and she also becomes one of Truffaldino's two "masters."

Florindo, portrayed by Wayne Wheeler, is the lover sought by Beatrice who, unknown to her, is staying at the same inn and becomes the second "master" of Truffaldino. Phyllis Mendelsohn, in the role of Clarice, is Pantalone's young daughter who had been promised by her father to Beatrice's brother, but, upon being freed from that promise by his death, is betrothed, as the play opens, to her true love, Silvio, who is played by Gary Gleason.

Silvio is Dr. Lombardi's son whose happiness at the beginning of the play is soon to be shattered by the seeming resurrection of the dead fiancé. Smeraldina, played by Regina Mureno, is the maidservant in Pantalone's household, and is this play's sole representative of the lower-class women.

The play is directed by Mrs. Vera Irwin, director of dramatics, and the technical direction is by Norman Silverman, Visiting Lecturer in Speech. According to Mrs. Irwin, the New Paltz Players are hoping that this production will provide its audience with a thoroughly enjoyable and amusing "night out."

Public Won't Get Jury Report on Rigged TV Shows

NEW YORK (AP) — A grand jury's report on its probe of rigged television quiz shows will not be made public.

General Sessions Judge Mitchell D. Schweitzer ruled Thursday:

"Where private citizens are involved, the function of the grand jury ends when it determines that no crime has been committed. The grand jury is not a vehicle for the public airing of the non-criminal immorality of private citizens."

150 Witnesses Heard
The grand jury drew up its findings in a 12,000-word presentment last June. The panel heard 150 witnesses over a nine-month period.

A presentment differs from an indictment in that it summarizes a situation and often makes recommendations. But it carries no criminal charge.

Manhattan Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan and the grand jury contended the presentment should be accepted in the public interest. Acceptance would have meant placing it in the court records, which are public.

Last August, while weighing his decision, Judge Schweitzer granted a request of the House legislative oversight subcommittee to see the minutes of the grand jury's evidence, as distinct from the presentment.

The minutes were used in the subcommittee's hearings in which Charles Van Doren and others admitted complicity in rigged shows.

Notes Public Clamor
In his 21-page decision Thursday, the judge noted that there had been "a good deal of public clamor" regarding the public's right to know what was in the grand jury's report.

But, said Schweitzer, "the greater service is done over the long range when the public knows that an individual or a group of individuals will be free of quasi-officially imposed disgrace of a grand jury report, where no opportunity is given to defend in the traditional manner with full right of confrontation and cross-examination."

Outlaw's Nephew Dies

LIBERTY, Mo. (AP) — Robert Franklin James, only son of the infamous Frank James and a nephew of Jesse, is dead.

The 82-year-old retired farmer died Wednesday night in a hospital here. Cause of his death was not announced.

He was the only son of Frank James, chief lieutenant of the Jesse James gang of train and bank robbers who plundered the Midwest after the Civil War.

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — A Chicago art appraiser today hailed a set of paintings dug out from under an immigrant's bed and a closet as "the greatest art find of the century." He said they're worth 8 to 10 million dollars.

Some art authorities weren't so sure. They said they'd like to see the works for themselves.

Alexander Zlatoff-Mirsky, art appraiser and restorer who has his own studio, declared 10 of the dozen paintings are masterpieces from the Italian Renaissance.

Rift Develops
One of them he identified as the "Madallena" by Michelangelo de Caravaggio and valued at more than one million dollars.

Even as announcement of the discovery came Thursday in filmmaker Jerry Giesler's office, a rift developed between the owners and their agent.

Alfonso Folio, 40, a television repairman, and his sister, Maria Folio Hataburda, of Pasadena said they were greatly disappointed that Charles Di Renzo, a friend who developed into their agent, had made the matter public.

Mrs. Hataburda's husband, Chester, said they don't know now whether the pictures will be offered for sale or exhibited. "It's all up in the air now," he said. Zlatoff-Mirsky said the masterpieces were authenticated by Amadore Porcella, catalogist for the Vatican and an expert on Renaissance art. Porcella spent four months in Pasadena examining the works, Folio and Mrs. Hataburda said.

No Official Ties
(In Rome, the director of the Vatican museums said Porcella was employed as a technician in the reorganization of the Vatican Art Galleries from 1933 to 1934 or 1935 but, according to available records, was not in charge of cataloging or evaluating and did not hold a top job. The director added that he had had no official connection with the Vatican for at least 24 years. An official of the Italian government arts department said Porcella is not on their list of first-rate and second-rate art experts although he may have become a recognized authority abroad.)

"We have always known the paintings were worth a great deal of money," Mrs. Hataburda said. "Of course, we didn't know how much."

The paintings have been handed down in the aristocratic Italian family for generations. They were shipped into the United States in 1946 by the U.S. army among the personal effects of Hataburda.

Giesler was hired to represent Di Renzo, whose sister, Mary Jane Russo, is Giesler's private secretary. It was Di Renzo who, when shown the pictures, had them appraised.

Two in Worship, Burglars Pick Up $8,500 at Home

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — Burglars picked up $8,500 in cash and postage stamps while two elderly women worshipped at a church near their home where the money was kept.

Mrs. Jennie Burgio and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Josephine Burgio, both in their 70s, told police $5,000 cash and $3,500 in stamps had been placed in a small safe in their bedroom. The safe also contained savings bonds and some jewelry.

They said they discovered the theft when they returned to their home Thursday evening.

Police said the thieves had pried open a side door, ransacked the bedroom where the safe — about two-feet square — was hidden, and dragged the strong box to a waiting auto.

The women gave no immediate explanation for the large amount of postage stamps.

Kiwanis Is Told By Author About Problems in TV

The problems of presenting plays on television was the subject of a talk before the Kingston Kiwanis Club Thursday by Gore Vidal, author of "Visit to a Small Planet," and various novels and plays.

In a humorous discourse on the problems besetting an author in the present day world, the speaker pointed out that prior to his entrance into television he was the author of several novels, but that advent of television in the early 1950's "stole the audience from our books."

Expresses Appreciation

Present to hear the noted author were the feminine members of the cast of the recent Kiwanis Kapers. President-elect Chester A. Baltz Jr., chairman of the 1959 version of the Kapers, publicly expressed his appreciation to the guests and various members of the Kiwanis Club for the successful conclusion of the Kapers.

In introducing the speaker, program chairman Donald MacIsaac revealed that Vidal was a resident of Barrytown since the end of World War 2. During 1954-55 television season he wrote over 20 television plays presented on Omnibus, Philco Playhouse, Studio One, Climax, and Suspense.

One of these plays became the Paul Newman movie "The Left Handed Gun," while another was the hit play "Visit to a Small Planet" starring Cyril Ritchard for two seasons on Broadway.

Among the movies authored by Vidal are "The Catered Affair" with Bette Davis and Debbie Reynolds, "I Accuse" with Jose Ferrer, "The Scapegoat" with Alec Guinness, and the forthcoming "Suddenly Last Summer" with Elizabeth Taylor. He also wrote the screen play for "Ben Hur" in collaboration with Christopher Fry.

On December 20th, Gore Vidal will appear on NBC's Sunday Showcase as the narrator of a play he has written about his grandfather, the late U. S. Senator Gore of Oklahoma.

Budgets Have Effect

Concerning the arrival of several authors on television, Gore Vidal said that the "best" years of television were between 1950 and 1955, and he indicated that one of the reasons for this was that "TV budgets were smaller then." He indicated that the author's troubles with television stemmed from the "restrictions" of the medium, and then portrayed the "smaller budget" idea with a comparison of figures which showed a $14,000 budget in 1950 compared with a $100,000 budget for the same time in 1959. Payment to an author for a half hour play in 1950 was about $200, while in the present time the payment is about $1,500.

Vidal intimated that "the advertising agencies control the air," and the various "drama programs had been axed" due to restrictions concerning race, creed and religion. He further pointed out that the frequency of commercials were detrimental to the presentation of plays as they interrupted the thought of the play, but the "viewers are the victims because the sale of products are the paramount concern of the program."

Not Strong for Polls

The speaker then referred to his coming show concerning his grandfather, U. S. Senator Gore of Oklahoma. He suggested that the era of politicians who followed their own convictions had passed and that they, and television people too, spend too much time and believe too greatly in the various polls conducted to measure opinion. "The audience is too passive, so the air can be loaded with inferior shows," said the speaker.

"You can't please everybody, and that is the reason for the present condition of television," said Vidal, who closed his address on the note that he thought better days were coming.

Publicity Ruled Not Prejudicial to Trial for Attack

Newspaper publicity on the "stomp-beating" of a Greene County state trooper has not been prejudicial to trial of an assault charge returned against burly Harry Hoyt, 28, of Windham.

Greene County Judge Roy C. Moon said publicity given the matter several months ago has not injured Hoyt's chances for a proper trial and he has not been injured by "inflammatory publicity." The matter came before Judge Moon on an application to delay the trial. He also ruled an application for a change of venue should be made to the Supreme Court and not the County Court.

Hoyt, with Donovan Andrus, 33, of Windham, and Wilfred Burrows, 20, of Hensonsville, were in a car halted by State Trooper Grant E. Davis of Leeds substation. When Davis attempted to serve a summons on Andrus, he says all three piled on him and he suffered a broken leg.

Judge Moon in determining the defendant would not be prejudiced by trial, said over six months had passed since the incident and he believed a fair trial could be had. The case may be tried this month or next. Mrs. Rosemary Byron of Athens appeared for Hoyt.

Wounded Hunter Slightly Better, Hospital Reports

The condition of Jordan Parni, 56, of Route 1, Saugerties, who was shot out of a tree in a wooded area of the town of Saugerties Tuesday afternoon by a hunter who mistook him for a bear, was reported "slightly improved" at Greene County Memorial Hospital, Catskill, this morning.

He has been in critical condition since a bullet from a .300 Savage rifle struck him in the leg, deflecting upward and rupturing his bladder and causing an injury to his spine.

Parni was hunting in the area when he decided to climb a tree to obtain better visibility. Henry Balogh, 33, of Rte. 2, Walden, Orange County, mistook him for a bear. Balogh went for help and Parni was removed from the woods by members of the Citizens Hose Company Rescue Squad of Catskill and rushed to the hospital.

Garroway Fires Back Answer to Critics of Show

NEW YORK (AP)—Dave Garroway used a quarter-hour portion of his morning television program today to answer what he termed "unconscionable smears" against the show because of its advance recording.

Garroway said such smears resulted from a previous episode on the NBC "Today" program during which he showed emotional stress while speaking of Charles Van Doren.

Hit as Deceitful

Van Doren had just been fired from a position with the network after admitting to congressional probes that he lied in denying he received help while a contestant on the former "Twenty-One" quiz program over NBC.

Garroway said the "Today" program had been attacked as deceitful in some quarters because his remarks had been recorded on video tape the afternoon before the program was aired.

"We have been accused of deceit. Our integrity has been attacked. I feel I must answer directly now. When I'm accused of dishonesty I feel I must answer," said Garroway.

"This program is taped. The words I'm speaking now were recorded 14½ hours ago. I thought everybody understood this. Apparently that is not the case."

Garroway went on to say that it was decided some months ago to record in advance the portion of the program seen in all time zones. Otherwise, he said, people on the West Coast would have to get up at 4 a. m. to see it, since it begins at 7 a. m. in New York.

No Secret About Taping

"There has been no secret about this taping, no secret whatsoever. It was given all the publicity our press department could give it."

"When Van Doren was suspended our studio was besieged by reporters. None came in the morning, they came in the afternoon," said Garroway.

However, he asserted, that "when I broke down when I was telling about Charles, newspapers suddenly found out I was on tape."

Inquest Likely In Shooting of Ex-Curtice Aide

WALLACEBURG, Ont. (AP)—An inquest probably will be held in the accidental shooting of retired General Motors vice president Harry W. Anderson, say

Lambton County officials did not indicate whether Harlow H. Curtice, retired GM president, would be summoned back to Canada if the inquest is held to repeat his account of the fatal hunting accident in the St. Clair River

Curtice, 66, told provincial police that Anderson stood up in front of his (Curtice's) shotgun as he fired at a flight of ducks while the two were in a blind on Ste. Anne's Island on the Canadian side of the St. Clair River, 30

Dr. C. A. Henrich, Lambton County coroner, indicated that an inquest was likely "on account of the prominence of these people." He did not say when it might be held.

Provincial police had said they were satisfied that the shooting was accidental. Officers returned to the accident scene Thursday to take photographs.

Curtice was to attend Mormon funeral services for Anderson today at Ann Arbor, Mich., where Anderson lived. Anderson, who headed GM labor relations before his retirement, had been a long-time friend of Curtice's.

Rocket Is Fine But Sodium Vapor Fails to Eject

WASHINGTON (AP) — For the second day in a row rocket scientists failed to release a cloud of sodium vapor 150 miles above Wallops Island, Va. The rocket worked fine, but again the sodium did not eject as planned.

The same thing happened Thursday at dawn when civilian space scientists lofted a two-stage Nike-Asp rocket to 160 miles, but got no spectacular cloud of vapor.

Only the first of the series of three sodium cloud experiments—at dusk Wednesday—worked correctly. That cloud caught the sunlight above the earth's shadow and the flare was visible as far north as Worcester, Mass.

No more sodium rockets are scheduled at this time at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration installation at Wallops Island.

Today's rocket reached a height of 147 miles, NASA said, "but sodium ejection was not observed. Cause of the failure was not determined."

The sodium experiments are aimed at learning more about wind currents at high altitudes. The launchings were among 10 rocket experiments scheduled this week here and at Cape Canaveral, Fla., White Sands, N.M., and Ft. Churchill, Manitoba.

DeSoto May Be Dropped After Demise of Edsel

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Automotive Writer

DETROIT (AP) — Discounting the influence of the medium-priced Edsel Ford revived speculation in the auto industry today that Chrysler Corp. may drop its slow-selling De Soto line.

Such rumors have been prevalent in industry circles for several years, but have been denied every time they have cropped

Observers noted, however, that Ford Motor Co. had previously denied it would stop producing sedans. Thursday, the company said the line was being dropped because of poor sales.

Production figures show that only three autos are selling at a slower pace than the De Soto. These are Chrysler's Imperial, Ford's Lincoln and the Edsel, in that order.

De Soto production for the 1961 calendar year so far totals 6,000.

slightly more than 30,000 units. The 1960 De Soto line is limited to six models.

Sales have slumped generally in the medium-priced field since the 1955 model year. Packard, Nash and Hudson, both in the medium price range, have been casualties of falling sales in recent years.

The Edsel was discontinued after only 28 months of production. Introduced at the end of August 1957, Ford enthusiastically predicted that 200,000 would be sold in the first year; Factory sales during the Edsel's existence fell slightly short of 110,000 cars.

The DUSO Sportswriters Association's football selections meeting in Kingston on Dec. 1 will be significant for a couple of reasons—Kingston and Middletown.

After three years on a starvation diet, the hapless Middies appear ready to rejoin the All-DUSO football bandwagon. Quarterback Bill Sherlock looks like a good bet for a first team berth.

From the Kingston side, it figures to be a very quiet year. For three seasons now, the All-DUSO football meetings have been characterized by a series of motions from the Kingston side of the trouble. The Maroon achieved the incredible total of 16 players on the 1956-57-58 all-conference squads, along with nine second team selections. We'll have five or six nominations this time. How many we can land on the first team is another thing.

There were times when the proceedings were rather embarrassing for the Kingston delegation, but the DUSO sportswriters are gentlemen of integrity, objective and fair minded. They went along with the local nominations without too much controversy. The 1957 battle for quarterback between Russ Devore of Port Jervis and Jerry McDonough of Kingston was a squeaker, but most of the other choices were nearly unanimous.

It was the young titans of the 1956-57-58 streak who took the DUSO League apart and their skill and class was reflected in the All-DUSO selections. This year's meeting should be far more interesting than those of the last three seasons.

It Started in 1956:

Starting with 1956, the Maroon picked up five first team berths: Marv Engle, Marv Shaub, George Stephano, Pete Blanshan and Hobie Armstrong, as a sophomore sensation. Armstrong, Shaub and Engle, the finest end in Bill Burke's regime, were repeaters in 1957 and were joined by Ray Spadafora and John Peck.

Armstrong made it for the third straight year in 1958, with Spadafora and Peck as repeaters. Dave O'Connor, Bob Jenkins and Jerry McDonough were also carried along by the Kingston landslide. Six players on the football team was something that never had happened before in All-DUSO selections. And it may never happen again.

With the Kingston powerhouse disbanded by graduation last June, the DUSO football league returned to something resembling normalcy this fall. Poughkeepsie won three games and tied one and now awaits Thanksgiving Day to learn if it has outright claim to the 1959 pennant. If Newburgh whips Kingston, the Goldbacks will share the lead. If the Maroons topple the Goldbacks, and it says here they will, Coach Bill Burke will have done his old pal, Sam Kallcho, a nice turn. In the meantime, Kingston would move up to second place and Newburgh would finish third.

The Thanksgiving Day records show a preponderance of Kingston victories. Coach Burke's squads, starting with 1945 season, have trounced the Goldbacks in 11 of 13 meetings, a statistic the Hill City rooters would rather forget. It was only for a two-year run, 1951-52, that Newburgh was able to break through. Kingston racked up five straight wins from 1946 through 1950 and have won the last six times since 1952.

Despite Kingston's one-sided domination of the series since the advent of Burke, there is little justification in making Kingston the favorite. Let's just say that the Maroons have a well-developed habit of winning on Thanksgiving Day and probably see no reason why there should be any change in the script this time around.

Saugerties Biddy Cage Loop Reelects Straub President

Bill Straub, popular Saugerties High School Athletic Director, was reelected for his seventh straight year as president of the Saugerties Biddy Basketball League. The election took place at an organizational meeting at the Municipal Auditorium last Thursday.

Fred Seither, Saugerties High coach, an a worker in the league for the past two seasons, was elected secretary-treasurer. Dick Redder was appointed by the president to head the officiating staff, composed of John Smith, Straub, Seither and newcomers.

More than 140 boys, between the ages of 8-12, are expected to participate in the league. Teams will play in a junior varsity and varsity division. Mr. Marion, coached by Don Martin, former Saugerties star, may join the league, giving it two-seven team divisions.

Fred Davi's Glasco A. C. team is expected to join the circuit for the second season. The squad had transportation problem last season and it is expected to be ironed out.

Workers include: Nationals—Jon Welton, coach, assisted by Summers and Martello; Pistons—Don Wolven, coach, assisted by Barry Wolven and Len Gilmore; Lakers—Joe Benjamin, coach, assisted by Joe Brady; Warriors—Dave Goble, coach, assisted by Mel Howard; Knicks—Chuck Ollinger, coach, assisted by Bill Casell and Art Fury; Glasco—Fred Davi, director, Ed Rizzo and Cab DePoala, coaches.

Dave Goble will head a ticket booster drive, expected to start next week. Youngsters participating in the league will be asked to sell two tickets each.

A committee was appointed to study the possibility of having sponsors for the various teams. It will report at the next meeting. The American Legion has been the league's partial sponsor for the past seven years.

League play will start on Dec. 7, with games slated for Monday and Wednesday evenings, starting at 6:30 p. m.

Indians Lack Veteran Talent This Season

By ED PALLADINO
Freeman Sports Staff

Uneasy is the UCAL Basketball crown, which has rested in the hands of the Onteora Central cagers the past two seasons. Coach Ono Monachino, starting his first year at the Boiceville school, has a pea green team to work with as he drills his cagers for their opening assignment on Friday, Dec. 4, against Liberty.

The great wealth of talent, which helped Eddie Witko compile a fantastic 44-12 record over a period of three seasons, has departed.

Last season, the Indians were 15-5 and reached the finals of the Section Nine tourney before bowing to Port Jervis. Gone from that squad are Bruce Wiederspiel, Tom McCrosson, Herb Krein, Terry Grant, Eddie Caruso, Dave Janick, Rudy Hellschmidt and Ralph Matos. Wiederspiel and McCrosson were All-UCAL first team members. The others saw considerable action throughout the season. To say they will be missed would be an understatement.

Wendt Returns

Monachino has one varsity color from that team returning. He's Ronnie Wendt, a 6-0 senior, who didn't see too much action. Up from the jayvees are Dick Bartsch, Joe DiGiovanni, John Caruso, Don Vanacore, Larry Dutcher, Len Mulich and Jay Gordon, all juniors, and senior Pete Heller. This is a good group as their 14-4 record with the junior varsity last season shows. But they are young and inexperienced.

Newcomers hoping to earn a varsity letter include Gary Moore, Joel Jocelyn, Jerry Egnor, Walt Bollenback, George Bruno, Roger Schriemer and Ralph Kulsing.

Monachino, who looks as he is ready to step into the ring against Ingersoll, hopes to cut the squad to 15 players by next week. He will carry that many for the rest of the season.

Size and Desire

"We have good size and a lot of desire. As the season progresses, I think this will be a good team," Ono declared. He said inexperience will be the big handicap facing the Indians as they try to defend their UCAL title and bring home a third straight championship. He said all positions on the varsity are still open.

Tom Wheeler will handle the jayvee cagers. His roster includes Jeff Allen, Bill Bachor, Bob Bean, Ed Mushlit, Charles Husarek, Ralph Medall, Terry Thompson, Bob Wichmann, Rich Rasmussen, Bob Pleasants, Chet Gordon, Joe Guglielmetti, Ed Bundy, Bob Hung and Carl Larish.

The Onteora schedule features 10 Ulster County Athletic League contests, two games in the Saugerties High Holiday tournament and six non-league contests. It's a tough one.

British Hold Canada Cup Lead By Seven Strokes

MELBOURNE (AP) — A third straight subpar round by Peter Thomson held Australia's now almost insurmountable 7-stroke lead over Canada today as all other hopes for the Canada Cup golf title, including those of celebrated Sam Snead and Cary Middlecoff, drowned under an avalanche of bogeys.

Thomson, four-time British Open champion who grew up within a stone's throw of this Roayl Melbourne course, added a 2-under-par 68 to his previous rounds of 67 and 69 for a 54-hole total of 204. This gave him a 1-stroke edge over rugged Stan Leonard of Canada in the individual competition. They had been tied at 136 at the halfway mark of this 4-day, 72-hole medal event.

Leonard sank a birdie putt of 8 feet on the final green for a 69-one of three subpar rounds this humid day for his 205. Snead remained third with a 73 for 211.

Thomson's brilliant round offset a mild blowup by his partner Kel Nagle who soared to a 76 after previous par rounds of 70-70.

The Australian team total, with one round left to play, was 420 followed by Canada at 427. The United States and South Africa are tied at 433 and hopelessly out of it.

The world's wealthiest and most successful golfers of a generation, Snead and Middlecoff soared 8 strokes over par and left the course grouching over lack of practice and unfamiliar playing conditions. Snead got his 73 after a good start while Middlecoff, his once proud and precise game in tatters, shot a 75.

NOW LISTEN UP — Onteora High School cager coach Ono Monachino casts a watchful eye as his varsity cagers learn the fundamentals of the game. The Indians will open their season on Friday, Dec. 4, against Liberty and Monachino has his work cut out for him. Only one player from last year's varsity squad is back this season. (Freeman photo).

Penn State Ready to Accept Bid to Liberty Bowl Contest

NEW YORK (AP) — The president of Pennsylvania State University says he prefers to accept a bid to the Liberty Bowl in Philadelphia Dec. 19. Dr. Eric Walker is expected to officially announce acceptance upon his return to University Park, Pa., within the next 48 hours.

Dr. Walker, here on university business, said in an interview with The Associated Press Thursday night that "I think we have a special obligation to a bowl in Pennsylvania." He added: "With the facts I now have in hand I prefer to accept the bid to the Liberty Bowl but I still want to get reports from the faculty senate and the board of trustees."

The Penn State president hurried to complete his business here. He said he hoped to be back home by nightfall.

Knicks Get 3rd Straight Win; Still in Cellar

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

No matter how you look at it, the New York Knickerbockers are in the wrong division of the National Basketball Assn.

As a member of the Eastern Division, they are buried in the cellar even after three straight victories including Thursday night's 130-109 triumph over the Cincinnati Royals. Their record is five victories and seven defeats. All of the victories have been at the expense of Western division clubs, including two over Minneapolis and one each over Detroit, St. Louis and Cincinnati. Five of the seven setbacks were by Eastern division teams.

The Knicks, who took advantage of off nights by St. Louis' Bob Pettit and Minneapolis' Elgin Baylor for the first two victories of their meager string, profited by Cincinnati's ragged play. The defeat was the Royals' eighth straight in a 3-12 season record.

Unofficial figures showed the Royals lost the ball 28 times without getting a shot while New York was guilty of only 12 such errors. The Knicks got a 25-point night from Richie Guerin and a 21-point performance from Ray Felix. Jack Twyman paced the Royals with 25.

Spartans to Play Miami Tonight, Root for Illini, Gophers Saturday

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Michigan State, tied with Northwestern and Wisconsin for the lead in the Big Ten ends its 1959 season tonight against Miami and then starts rooting for Illinois and Minnesota to win Saturday.

That is the only way the Spartans are going to get to the Rose Bowl as they and a score of other teams sweat out bowl nominations and conference titles Saturday in the showdown weekend along the college football front.

Illinois plays Northwestern and Minnesota meets Wisconsin as the Big Ten closes its campaign in the Jan. 1 classic in Pasadena. The three leaders all have a 4-2 conference mark, and a victory by either or both of the Spartans' hopes.

The Wisconsin-Minnesota game will be seen over Nation wide NBC-TV beginning at 2:30 p.m. Eastern Standard Time.

But the Spartans are going to have their work cut out for them against a Miami team that has won five of eight games and is under consideration for an Orange Bowl spot against the Big Eight representative—also being picked Saturday in a pair of crucial games.

Bowl Bids Open

There are a bundle of conference titles, and bowl bids up for grabs Saturday. Only top-ranked Syracuse, which plays Boston University, is in a bowl, meeting the Southwest Conference champ in the Cotton Bowl. The Orange Bowl will have a bit of a tussle with BU in trying to hang on to a top ranking in offense, defense and scoring.

The host spot in the Rose Bowl and the Far West Five title may be decided Saturday but two teams are involved. Fourth-ranked Southern California (8-0) is ineligible for a bowl but a victory over UCLA gets the Far West Five crown. Runnerup Washington (8-1) goes for the Rose Bowl with a victory over Washington State.

The host spot in the Orange Bowl and Big Eight Conference title are tied together too. Conference leader Oklahoma (4-1) can't return a second consecutive year so the battle looms between runnersup Kansas and Missouri, both 3-2 which play each other, and Iowa State (3-2) which plays Oklahoma. A Sooner victory eliminates the Cyclones, but reversal plus a victory by Kansas or Missouri throws the Big Eight to a three-way tie with the bowl spot up to the conference.

Many Possibilities

The Southeastern Conference, won by Georgia (No. 6) last week, has a number of bowl possibilities, including second ranked Mississippi which is idle; third-ranked Louisiana State which meets Tulane; Tennessee which plays Kentucky and Alabama, which faces Memphis State. Georgia takes on Georgia Tech, also harboring bowl hopes. One of the SEC group will be in the Sugar Bowl, with a rematch between LSU and Mississippi looming.

Tenth-ranked Texas Christian (4-2) meets Rice and hopes to climb to a tie for second place with idle fifth-ranked Texas (4-1) in the Southwest Conference. Leader Arkansas (5-1) plays a non-conference game with Texas Tech.

Penn State (No. 7), on the verge of officially accepting a bid to Philadelphia's Liberty Bowl, plays intra-state rival Pittsburgh, which is also interested in a bowl after turning down a bid to Louisville's Blue Grass affair.

Benefit Cage Contest Slated At Oteora Gym

Oteora players from previous seasons will clash with the 1959-60 varsity team in a benefit game Wednesday, 8 p. m., at the Boiceville School gym. The game is for the benefit of the P-TA Welfare and Loan Fund.

A preliminary contest will start the proceedings at 7 p. m.

Salary War Forecast By the Pros

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Pro football officials in both the National Football League and the infant American Football League are approaching their draft meetings with tongue in cheek utterances about the possibility of another full scale salary war.

Acting Commissioner Austin H. Gansel of the NFL foresees the possibility of a money battle but hopes it doesn't materialize. Harry Wismer, president of the AFL's New York franchise and a league spokesman, feels the salary scale will go up but not high enough to hurt either league.

Wismer himself Thursday offered a case in point which could be the tipoff of things to come.

Wismer Talks

Appearing at a meeting of cigar executives in Philadelphia the radio and television personality announced that quarterback Richie Lucas would be New York's first pick in the AFL draft at Minneapolis next week.

He was asked if bidding for a player of Lucas' pro potential wouldn't fire a new battle of dollars.

"We're not going to fight anyone," Wismer said, adding "I'd say Mr. Lucas will be in a commendable position."

Gansel, softspoken former FBI agent filling in for the late Bert Bell, approached the problem realistically.

It is inevitable that in some cases there is going to be heavy bidding. Salaries are going to go up. I don't see how it can be prevented. But, of course, there are other things the players will have to think over.

"There is the fact that we are established, offer a player security. We have a hospitalization, insurance and benefit plan. The players know we've been here a long time and will be here awhile longer. We aren't looking for a money war. It won't do any of us any good."

The AFL is going to take first crack at the college player grab bag. The new league meets Monday to draft 40 players for each of its eight teams—New York, Los Angeles, Houston, Dallas, Minneapolis-St. Paul, Denver and Boston. The latter became the final member of the circuit Thursday when Philadelphia Bob Carpenter passed up an opportunity to apply for a franchise.

Darkhorse Leads Golf Tournament

By STAN ATKINS

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — The first $15,000 Mobile Open Golf Tournament had a distinct darkhorse tinge today as play entered the second round.

At the head of the pack was Jerry Pittman of Tulsa, Okla., a newcomer who turned 23 Thursday, Pittman, who won only $815 in his previous 11 tournaments, came home with a 5-under-par 35-32-67.

Bunched two strokes in back were two more 23-year-old pros, a veteran club pro, and a perennial tournament threat, Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Tex.

Maxwell, who has won $26,000 in 34 tournaments this year, was in a commanding position and hurting for a tournament victory. The Texan has won a meet a year since 1955 but hasn't taken top money so far this year.

Matching Maxwell's 34-34 — 69 were youngsters Eddie Langert of Minneapolis, Minn., 36-33 — 69; Jack Ellis of Wilmette, Ill., 35-34 — 69; and John Barnum, the 64 club pro from Grand Rapids, Mich., 35-34 — 69.

Thirty-two players in the field of 129 equaled or bettered par over the 6,383-yard Mobile municipal course where par is 36-36-72. The course is only two years old and is still raged in places.

Merchants, Recs Share HVBL Lead

Five Merchants of Kingston and Dutchess Recs, the defending champions, are tied for the Hudson Valley Bowling League lead, with 21 and 9 records, a half game ahead of Jones Dairy. Jake Charter of Dutchess Recs has a three-point margin over Buster Ferraro of Kingston in the individual race, with a 210 average. Jack Ferraro trails his uncle, Buster, by a point and is two ahead of Chris Gallo, a teammate.

Charter's 712 paces the individual triples. Buster Ferraro's 268 is high single. Five Merchants' 1110 and Dutchess Recs' 3220 are the team marks.

Machen, Folley To Fight Again On Jan. 18

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Heavyweights Zora Folley and Eddie Machen, who didn't help their title aspirations the last time they fought, try it again Jan. 18 at the Cow Palace with each aiming to boost his stock in the boxing market.

Each has won six straight. Folley, from Chandler, Ariz., ranks as the No. 2 challenger among heavyweights. Machen, of Portland, is No. 4.

When Machen was No. 1 and Folley No. 2, they met over 12 rounds at the Cow Palace on April 7, 1958. The decision was a draw with frequent boos during the dull bout.

Folley's manager, Bill Swift, termed the decision, "the biggest robbery I've ever seen," and added that his fighter wanted another match with Machen "but not in San Francisco."

After that, Machen was knocked out by Ingemar Johansson, the heavyweight champion, in one round. Folley lost a controversial decision to Henry Cooper, the British Empire champion, in London.

Wednesday night, Folley outpointed Alonzo Johnson of Pittsburgh in a 10-rounder at Phoenix. Machen last fought on Oct. 27 at Portland when he knocked out Pat McMurtry of Tacoma, Wash., with left hooks in the first round.

BU Coach Hopes To Top Syracuse On Saturday

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Steve Sinko, Boston University football coach, has figured a way to check undefeated Syracuse Saturday.

"I guess the only defense is to hope they trip," said Sinko. Odds-makers rate Syracuse a 42-point favorite over BU.

Syracuse has averaged 38.5 points a game in winning eight straight this season. BU, a 26-7 upset winner over hometown rival Boston College last week, will be spearheaded by hard-running Paul Canero and Eno Denitto, who tossed two touchdown passes against BC.

Syracuse, the nation's No. 1 team in The Associated Press poll for two weeks running, will be at full strength with one exception. Second-string fullback Jim Anderson, out of action most of the season with a bad ankle, will miss the game.

After BU, Syracuse will end its regular-season play Dec. 5 against UCLA at Los Angeles. O'New Year's Day, Syracuse will meet the Southwest Conference representative in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas, Tex.

In the only other action for Upstate teams Saturday, Buffalo University will entertain Marshall College of West Virginia.

Cornell and Colgate are idle until Thanksgiving Day, when Cornell plays at Penn and Colgate will meet Brown at Providence, R. I.

Deer Fatalities

WESTBROOK, Conn. (AP)—Deer had a bad time in this area within a space of six hours. A train killed two and injured another. Two others were killed on highways. State troopers said it was an unusually high toll and probably was brought about by the mating season.

Andorra, a 1190-square mile republic in the Pyrenees Mountains, has been a sovereign nation since the year 1278.

Major Hoople Bids Farewell, Picks Kingston to Beat NFA

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE
(Sideline Superintendent)

Egad, may loyal devotees, never in more than half a century of close association with the game have I witnessed a season such as this.

The collegiate elevens are kicking over the dope bucket with an abandon as complete as that displayed by Mrs. O'Leary's cow when she gave Chicago history's greatest hot foot in October, 1871.

But what happened last week, and the week before, and the week before that, is as nothing compared with what is yet to come. Get a firm grip on yourself and then gaze into my crystal ball for a look at the upsets foretold by the Hoople Sure Hit System.

To cut short the mystery for you Kingston High School fans, do not fret. The Maroon boys will keep taking it out on Newburgh and will send the Goldbacks down to a crushing 26-7 defeat, thus denying the City club of a tie for the DUSO championship.

The last time Newburgh beat Kingston, Hector was a Pup, the Overland Stage was the fastest travel time between New York and Los Angeles and John Sutter was discovering gold in his California mill. Harrumph!

In case you are wondering about the other traditional game on Thanksgiving Day, Middletown will end the famine and beat Port Jervis, 7-6. Why? Because Amos Barnaby Hoople says so. Harrumph!

Since I shall be bidding my fans farewell after this never-to-be-forgotten column, I shall leave you an indelible impression of my unusual talents.

For instance, on a precedent-shattering Saturday, Princeton, Minnesota, and Pittsburgh will record spectacular upsets. Harrumph!

In a traditional clash, one that is dear to my heart, Yale will triumph over arch foe Harvard.

Would that I could join the boys at Morey's for a loving cup after the Old Blue thrashes the Crimson in the Bowl. Unfortunately the press of duties in connection with my oil and cattle interests will not permit me to do to drop the reins even for a day.

If you doubt this learned observer's selections, remember it was the Major Himself who predicted that Texas would fall by the wayside last weekend. Did I not also pick the Oklahoma-Army game right smack on the nose? Of course I did.

Off to Kathiville

Immediately after the Thanksgiving Day clashes, I shall eat my raw turkey dinner at Ma Kettle's and will then throw my belongings into my high powered speedboat and head for Kathiville, where I shall feast on raspberries (thrown at me during my frequent appearances) and onion juice. Then to Slavodia for a winter of relaxation among the cannibals.

Anyway, so long gentle read-

cast (NBC, 10 p.m. Eastern Standard Time) bout.

The South African lost his empire title to southpaw Dave Charnley by a technical knockout early this year, but his over-all pro record is excellent. He has won 42 of 47 fights and scored 21 knockouts.

Matthews, only 20, has come along with five straight victories since being stopped by Ortiz via a sixth-round kayo. He has won 21 of 24 fights, 13 by knockouts.

Matthews Set For Big Fight

NEW YORK (AP)—All the male members of the Towel family of Johannesburg, South Africa, are or have been prize fighters, but fortunately youthful Len Matthews of Philadelphia will have to meet only one of them in the 10-round main event at Madison Square Garden tonight.

The one is Willie, a former British Empire lightweight champion who will be making his American debut, and he hopes to make Matthews a stepping stone toward a title match with the welterweight champion, Don Jordan.

Matthews has been gunning for a title bout with the world lightweight champion, Joe Brown.

So both men have a stout incentive, not to mention the promise of a shot at Carlos Ortiz's junior welterweight championship for the winner.

Two judges and the referee will judge the bout by rounds, with a supplementary point system.

Towel must forfeit $1,000 if he scales more than 143 pounds for the nationally televised and broadcast (NBC, 10 p.m. Eastern Standard Time) bout.

Doing Something About the Weather

AN OLD "PRO" STILL SERVES—If scientists' predictions come true, in a few years 100 per cent accurate weather forecasting will be possible. One of the pioneers in the task of making this a reality is the Boeing 707 prototype, the original of the Jetliners now in passenger service. Its usefulness far from over, it has been turned into a jet-propelled weather station by Boeing and Bendix Aviation. The airplane's clean lines are studded with all kinds of sensing devices. Carrying radar, cameras and its own electronic computer, the craft is busy sniffing, probing and measuring atmospheric data as a forerunner of future flying laboratories.

Conductivity probe registers voltages generated by storms.

Static electricity wicks get rid of plane's unwanted electrical charge.

Turbulence probe is sensitive to vertical air currents — "bumps."

Air scoops sample radioactivity and chemical make-up of air.

Fair-weather probe records electrical field of atmosphere.

Moderately Cold, Is 6-Day Forecast

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The extended weather forecasts for New York State, prepared by the U. S. Weather Bureau, for the period from 7 p. m. today to 7 p. m. Wednesday:

Eastern New York—Moderately cold weather with no major day to day changes to midweek. Temperatures averaging around 5 degrees below normal. Other than occasional snow flurries, the next general precipitation is likely late Sunday or Monday, probably occurring as rain mixed with or changing to snow. Total water content of precipitation less than one-half inch.

Western New York—Seasonable weather is indicated with temperatures near normal. Only minor day to day changes in temperature are expected. Some light wet snow or rain over the weekend, and another general period of rain or snow likely about Tuesday. Less than one-half inch of melted precipitation is expected.

Temperature normals — Normal temperatures in Upstate New York now range from overnight lows in the middle 20s to low 30s to daytime highs in the 40s.

Believed IRA Attacks

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP)—Two Northern Ireland policemen were ambushed and seriously wounded today while patrolling the border with the Irish Republic.

The attackers were believed members of the outlawed Irish Republican Army, which wages a guerrilla campaign to drive the British out of the North and unite Ireland.

Ike Rejects Bid To Take Democrat On Foreign Tour

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has turned down a suggestion that he take a top Democratic leader with him on his foreign tour next month.

He said he thought a pre-departure discussion with congressional leaders of both parties would be more useful. He said he has already proposed such an arrangement.

The President stated his views in a letter to Sen. Thomas J. Dodd (D-Conn) from Eisenhower's vacation headquarters in Augusta, Ga. Dodd made the letter public Thursday night. There was no further comment from Eisenhower.

The letter was in reply to a suggestion Dodd made last week that one or more Democrats experienced in international affairs be invited to make the trip. He specifically suggested former President Harry S. Truman, among others.

Eisenhower leaves Dec. 3 on a 20,000 mile tour of 11 nations.
